thrivinmamaofdanes Final thoughts

You are right....money doesn't buy happiness — But it's a DAMN good down payment.

All I know is that phrase NEVER made my broke ass feel any better 😊 ....and after awhile I just felt stupid not doing anything about it when I saw so many people around me winning doing that thing I was sitting around judging. So — you should text me today

Cuz while you're up stressing about this and that and work tomorrow.... I'm messing around , taking these selfies in my living room (cuz bomb lighting) in between 13 pups waking up every 30 minutes cuz I don't have to get up this morning and go ANYWHERE
