Attorneys for Plaintiff

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

BRENDA LABIB, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

24 HOUR FITNESS USA. INC.,

Defendant.

Case No.

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 Plaintiff Brenda Labib (“Plaintiff”) brings this action on behalf of herself and all others
2 similarly situated against Defendant 24 Hour Fitness USA, Inc. (“24 Hour” or “Defendant”).
3 Plaintiff makes the following allegations pursuant to the investigation of her counsel and based 4 upon information and belief, except as to the allegations specifically pertaining to herself, which 5 are based on personal knowledge.

6 FACTS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

7 1. Defendant 24 Hour Fitness USA, Inc. has made the unconscionable decision to keep 8 charging its millions¹ of customers monthly membership fees while closing 100 percent of its gyms
9 as the novel coronavirus, COVID-19, rages throughout the world and the United States economy 10 has gone into a deep recession.

11 2. Defendant is the operator of more than 430 gyms or “health clubs” throughout the 12 United States, operating in over 140 cities in California alone.² As its name implies, 24 Hour is 13 advertised as being open 24 hours per day, every day of the year, other than very limited holidays 14 (Thanksgiving day, Christmas day, and New Year’s day). To use Defendant’s gyms, the vast 15 majority of Defendant’s customers sign up for (1) a month-to-month membership, paying a set fee 16 every month along with an initiation fee or (2) a yearly membership that turns into a month-to-17 month membership after the initial 12 months. Average monthly membership fees range between 18 $29.99 to $34.99, but can be as high as roughly $50 per month in certain locations. A limited
19 number of customers also pay single-use fees to use Defendant’s gym on a single occasion, or buy
20 pre-paid memberships for use of Defendant’s gyms from 30 days up to one year.³

21 3. To sign up for Defendant’s month-to-month memberships and yearly membership, 22 customers provide Defendant with their credit card or debit card information. Defendant then 23 automatically charges its customers’ credit or debit cards as payments are due on a monthly basis.

26 ¹ Defendant reported having nearly 4 million members in 2014.
https://www.24hourfitness.com/company/press_room/press_releases/2014/20140530.html (last 27 accessed 3/27/2020).

² <https://www.24hourfitness.com/Website/clubList/CA> (last accessed 3/27/2020)

³ <https://www.24hourfitness.com/membership/> (last accessed 3/27/2020).

1 2020, Defendant closed all of its 24 Hour Fitness gyms nationwide, including the 24 Hour Fitness
2 gym in Concord, CA that Plaintiff attended. However, on March 27, 2020, Defendant charged
3 Plaintiff's debit card in the full amount of her month-to-month membership - $46.99 – even though
4 Plaintiff does not have access to any of Defendant's gyms. Further, Defendant has not refunded
5 Plaintiff any part of her monthly fee for March 16 through March 27, 2020, when Defendant's
6 gyms were closed. Plaintiff signed up for Defendant's month-to-month membership with the belief
7 and on the basis that she would have access to Defendant's gyms on a 24-hour basis. Plaintiff 8 would not have paid for the membership, or would not have paid for it on the same terms, had she 9 known that she would not have access to any of Defendant's gyms. Plaintiff continues to face
10 imminent harm, as Defendant continues charging its customers monthly fees while all of its gyms 11 remain closed.

12 7. Defendant 24 Hour Fitness USA, Inc. is a California corporation located and 13 headquartered in San Ramon, California. Defendant is the operator of over 430 gyms nationwide,
14 including gyms in California. Defendant's fraudulent and wrongful charging its customers fees 15 while its gyms are closed was conceived, reviewed, approved, and otherwise controlled from 16 Defendant's California headquarters. Defendant's fraudulent and wrongful charging its customers 17 fees while its gyms are closed was coordinated at, emanated from, and was developed at its 18 California headquarters. All critical decisions regarding the unlawfully charging its customers fees
19 while its gyms are closed were made in California.

20 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

21 8. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2)(A)
22 because this case is a class action where the aggregate claims of all members of the proposed class
23 are in excess of $5,000,000, exclusive of interest and costs, and most members of the proposed 24 nationwide class are citizens of states different from the states of Defendant.

25 9. This Court has general jurisdiction over Defendant because it is headquartered in 26 California. Further, the Court has general jurisdiction over Defendant because it conducts 27
28

1 substantial business within California such that Defendant has significant, continuous, and
2 pervasive contacts with the State of California.

3 10. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because the challenged
4 fee practices have been committed in this District, Defendant is headquartered in this District, and 5 because Plaintiff resides and suffered the alleged harm in this District.

6 CLASS REPRESENTATION ALLEGATIONS

7 11. Plaintiff brings this action as a class action under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23
8 on behalf of a Class consisting of all persons in the United States who were charged fees for a 9 period in which Defendant's gyms were closed.

10 12. Plaintiff also seek to represent a subclass defined as all members of the Class who 11 are members at a gym in California (the "California Subclass").

12 13. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend or modify the Class definition with greater 13 specificity or further division into subclasses or limitation to particular issues as discovery and the 14 orders of this Court warrant.

15 14. Excluded from the Class are the Defendant, the officers and directors of the 16 Defendant at all relevant times, members of its immediate families and their legal representatives,
17 heirs, successors or assigns and any entity in which Defendant has or had a controlling interest.

18 15. Plaintiff is a member of the Class and California Subclass she seeks to represent.

19 16. Defendant has millions of customers nationwide that have paid or were charged fees
20 while Defendant's gyms were closed. Accordingly, members of the Class are so numerous that 21 their individual joinder herein is impracticable. The precise number of Class members and their 22 identities are unknown to Plaintiff at this time but may be determined through discovery. Class 23 members may be notified of the pendency of this action by mail and/or publication through the 24 distribution records of Defendant.

25 17. Common questions of law and fact exist as to all Class members and predominate
26 over questions affecting only individual Class members. Common legal and factual questions
27
28

1 include, but are not limited to whether Defendant has breached its contract with its customers and 2 whether its actions are fraudulent and unlawful.

3 18. The claims of the named Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Class in that the 4 named Plaintiff was exposed to Defendant's false and misleading advertising and was charged
5 membership fees despite being barred from entry into Defendant's gyms, and suffered losses as a 6 result.

7 19. Plaintiff is an adequate representative of the Class because Plaintiff's interests do
8 not conflict with the interests of the Class members Plaintiff seek to represent, Plaintiff has retained
9 competent counsel experienced in prosecuting class actions, and Plaintiff intends to prosecute this 10 action vigorously. The interests of Class members will be fairly and adequately protected by 11 Plaintiff and her counsel.

12 20. The class mechanism is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient 13 adjudication of the claims of the Class members. Each individual Class member may lack the 14 resources to undergo the burden and expense of individual prosecution of the complex and 15 extensive litigation necessary to establish Defendant's liability. Individualized litigation increases 16 the delay and expense to all parties and multiplies the burden on the judicial system presented by 17 the complex legal and factual issues of this case. Individualized litigation also presents a potential
18 for inconsistent or contradictory judgments. In contrast, the class action device presents far fewer 19 management difficulties and provides the benefits of single adjudication, economy of scale, and 20 comprehensive supervision by a single court on the issue of Defendant's liability. Class treatment
21 of the liability issues will ensure that all claims and claimants are before this Court for consistent 22 adjudication of the liability issues.

COUNT I

Violation of California’s Consumers Legal Remedies Act,

California Civil Code §§ 1750, et seq.

(Injunctive Relief Only)

5 21. Plaintiff hereby incorporate by reference the allegations contained in all preceding
6 paragraphs of this complaint.

7 22. Plaintiff brings this claim individually and on behalf of members of the proposed 8 Class against Defendant. Plaintiff also brings this claim individually and on behalf of members of 9 the proposed California Subclass against Defendant.

10 23. Plaintiff and Class members are consumers who paid fees for use of Defendant’s 11 gyms for personal, family or household purposes. Plaintiff and the Class are “consumers” as that 12 term is defined by the CLRA in Cal. Civ. Code § 1761(d).

13 24. Defendant’s gym access that Plaintiff and Class members purchased from 14 Defendant was a “service” within the meaning of Cal. Civ. Code § 1761(b).

15 25. Defendant’s actions, representations, and conduct have violated, and continue to 16 violate the CLRA, because they extend to transactions that intended to result, or which have 17 resulted in, the sale of services to consumers.

18 26. Defendant’s advertising that its gyms would be available to its customers 24 hours
19 per day, and that its customers would have access to its gyms upon paying a membership fee is
20 false and misleading to a reasonable consumer, including Plaintiff, because Defendant in fact
21 closed all of its gyms while continuing to charge its customers the full price of gym membership.

22 27. California’s Consumers Legal Remedies Act, Cal. Civ. Code § 1770(a)(5), prohibits 23 “[r]epresenting that goods or services have sponsorship, approval, characteristics, ingredients, uses,
24 benefits, or quantities which they do not have or that a person has a sponsorship, approval, status,
25 affiliation, or connection which he or she does not have.” By engaging in the conduct set forth 26 herein, Defendant violated and continue to violate Section 1770(a)(5) of the CLRA, because 27 Defendant’s conduct constitutes unfair methods of competition and unfair or fraudulent acts or 28

1 practices, in that Defendant misrepresent the particular characteristics, benefits and quantities of 2 the services.

3 28. Cal. Civ. Code § 1770(a)(7) prohibits representing that goods or services are of a 4 particular standard, quality, or grade, or that goods are of a particular style or model, if they are of 5 another. By engaging in the conduct set forth herein, Defendant violated and continues to violate 6 Section 1770(a)(7) of the CLRA, because Defendant’s conduct constitutes unfair methods of 7 competition and unfair or fraudulent acts or practices, in that Defendant misrepresents the 8 particular standard, quality or grade of the services.

9 29. Cal. Civ. Code § 1770(a)(9) further prohibits “[a]dvertising goods or services with 10 intent not to sell them as advertised.” By engaging in the conduct set forth herein, Defendant
11 violated and continues to violate Section 1770(a)(9), because Defendant’s conduct constitutes 12 unfair methods of competition and unfair or fraudulent acts or practices, in that Defendant
13 advertises services with the intent not to sell the services as advertised.

14 30. Plaintiff and the Class acted reasonably when they purchased Defendant’s gym
15 membership on the belief that Defendant’s representations were true and lawful.

16 31. Plaintiff and the Class suffered injuries caused by Defendant because (a) they would 17 not have purchased or paid for Defendant’s gym memberships absent Defendant’s representations
18 and omission of a warning that it would continue charging customers’ credit cards and debit cards 19 while all gyms nationwide are closed; (b) they would not have purchased gym memberships on the 20 same terms absent Defendant’s representations and omissions; (c) they paid a price premium for 21 Defendant’s gym membership based on Defendant’s misrepresentations and omissions; and (d)
22 Defendant’s gym memberships did not have the characteristics, benefits, or quantities as promised.

23 32. Under California Civil Code § 1780(a), Plaintiff and members of the Class seek 24 injunctive and equitable relief for Defendant’s violations of the CLRA. Plaintiff has mailed an 25 appropriate demand letter consistent with California Civil Code § 1782(a). If Defendant fails to 26 take corrective action within 30 days of receipt of the demand letter, Plaintiff will amend her 27 complaint to include a request for damages as permitted by Civil Code § 1782(d).

1 which is known, or which by the exercise of reasonable care should be known, to be untrue or 2 misleading.”

3 46. Defendant engaged in a scheme of charging customers full monthly membership fee
4 while 100 percent of its gyms were closed. Defendant’s advertising and marketing of its gyms as 5 being accessible 24 hours per day misrepresented and/or omitted the true content and nature of 6 Defendant’s services. Defendant’s advertisements and inducements were made in and originated
7 from California and come within the definition of advertising as contained in Bus. & Prof. Code §
8 17500, et seq. in that the promotional materials were intended as inducements to purchase gym
9 memberships, and are statements disseminated by Defendant to Plaintiff and Class members.
10 Defendant knew that these statements were unauthorized, inaccurate, and misleading.

11 47. Defendant’s advertising that its gyms would be available to its customers 24 hours
12 per day, and that its customers would have access to its gyms upon paying a membership fee is
13 false and misleading to a reasonable consumer, including Plaintiff, because Defendant in fact
14 closed all of its gyms while continuing to charge its customers the full price of gym membership.

15 48. Defendant violated § 17500, et seq. by misleading Plaintiff and the Class to believe 16 that they would be charged fees only when they have access to Defendant’s gyms.

17 49. Defendant knew or should have known, through the exercise of reasonable care that 18 its advertising of its gyms as being accessible for 24 hours a day is false and misleading. Further,
19 Defendant knew or should have known that it was breaching its contracts with its customers and 20 fraudulently charging fees when it continued charging fees while all of its gyms were closed.

21 50. Plaintiff and the Class lost money or property as a result of Defendant’s FAL
22 violation because (a) they would not have purchased or paid for Defendant’s gym memberships
23 absent Defendant’s representations and omission of a warning that it would continue charging 24 customers’ credit cards and debit cards while all gyms nationwide are closed; (b) they would not 25 have purchased gym memberships on the same terms absent Defendant’s representations and 26 omissions; (c) they paid a price premium for Defendant’s gym membership based on Defendant’s 27

1 misrepresentations and omissions; and (d) Defendant's gym memberships did not have the 2 characteristics, benefits, or quantities as promised.

3 COUNT IV

4 Breach of Express Warranty

5 51. Plaintiff hereby incorporate by reference the allegations contained in all preceding
6 paragraphs of this complaint.

7 52. Plaintiff brings this claim individually and on behalf of the members of the 8 proposed Class against Defendant. Plaintiff also brings this claim individually and on behalf of the 9 members of the proposed California Subclass against Defendant.

10 53. In connection with the sale of gym memberships, Defendant issues an express
11 warranty that Defendant's gyms are accessible 24 hours per day, excluding select holidays.

12 54. Defendant's affirmation of fact and promise in Defendant's marketing and signage
13 became part of the basis of the bargain between Defendant and Plaintiff and Class members, 14 thereby creating express warranties that the services would conform to Defendant's affirmation of 15 fact, representations, promise, and description.

16 55. Defendant breached its express warranty because Defendant's gyms are not 17 accessible 24 hours per day. In fact, Defendant charges its customers the full amount of its 18 monthly fees while 100 percent of its gyms are closed.

19 56. Plaintiff and the Class members were injured as a direct and proximate result of 20 Defendant's breach because: (a) they would not have purchased or paid for Defendant's gym
21 memberships absent Defendant's representations and omission of a warning that it would continue 22 charging customers' credit cards and debit cards while all gyms nationwide are closed; (b) they 23 would not have purchased gym memberships on the same terms absent Defendant's representations
24 and omissions; (c) they paid a price premium for Defendant's gym membership based on 25 Defendant's misrepresentations and omissions; and (d) Defendant's gym memberships did not 26 have the characteristics, benefits, or quantities as promised.

COUNT V

Negligent Misrepresentation

3 57. Plaintiff hereby incorporate by reference the allegations contained in all preceding
4 paragraphs of this complaint.

5 58. Plaintiff bring this claim individually and on behalf of the members of the proposed
6 Class against Defendant. Plaintiff also brings this claim individually and on behalf of the members
7 of the proposed California Subclass against Defendant.

8 59. As discussed above, Defendant misrepresented that its gyms are accessible 24 hours
9 per day. However, Defendant in fact charges full price for monthly memberships even when 100
10 percent of its gyms are closed to the public.

11 60. At the time Defendant made these representations, Defendant knew or should have 12 known that these representations were false or made them without knowledge of their truth or 13 veracity.

14 61. At an absolute minimum, Defendant negligently misrepresented and/or negligently
15 omitted material facts about its gym memberships and services.

16 62. The negligent misrepresentations and omissions made by Defendant, upon which 17 Plaintiff and Class members reasonably and justifiably relied, were intended to induce and actually 18 induced Plaintiff and Class members to purchase Defendant's gym memberships.

19 63. Plaintiff and Class members would not have purchased Defendant's gym 20 memberships, or would not have purchased the services on the same terms, if the true facts had 21 been known.

22 64. The negligent actions of Defendant caused damage to Plaintiff and Class members, 23 who are entitled to damages and other legal and equitable relief as a result.

1 COUNT VI

2 Fraud

3 65. Plaintiff hereby incorporate by reference the allegations contained in all preceding
4 paragraphs of this complaint.

5 66. Plaintiff brings this claim individually and on behalf of the members of the 6 proposed Class against Defendant. Plaintiff also brings this claim individually and on behalf of the 7 members of the proposed California Subclass against Defendant.

8 67. As discussed above, Defendant misrepresented that its gyms are accessible 24 hours
9 per day. However, Defendant in fact charges full price for monthly memberships even when 100
10 percent of its gyms are closed to the public. These misrepresentations and omissions were made 11 with knowledge of their falsehood.

12 68. The misrepresentations and omissions made by Defendant, upon which Plaintiff and 13 Class members reasonably and justifiably relied, were intended and actually induced Plaintiff and 14 Class members to Defendant's gym memberships.

15 69. The fraudulent actions of Defendant caused damage to Plaintiff and Class members, 16 who are entitled to damages and other legal and equitable relief as a result.

17 COUNT VII

18 Unjust Enrichment

19 70. Plaintiff hereby incorporate by reference the allegations contained in all preceding
20 paragraphs of this complaint.

21 71. Plaintiff brings this claim individually and on behalf of the members of the 22 proposed Class against Defendant. Plaintiff also brings this claim individually and on behalf of the 23 members of the proposed California Subclass against Defendant.

24 72. Plaintiff and members of the Class conferred benefits on Defendant by paying, and 25 being charged, membership fees while 100 percent of Defendant's gyms were and remain closed.

26 73. Defendant has knowledge of such benefits.
27
28

1 COUNT IX

2 Conversion

3 80. Plaintiff hereby incorporate by reference the allegations contained in all preceding
4 paragraphs of this complaint.

5 81. Plaintiff brings this claim individually and on behalf of the members of the 6 proposed Class against Defendant. Plaintiff also brings this claim individually and on behalf of the 7 members of the proposed California Subclass against Defendant.

8 82. Plaintiff and members of the Class had a right to retain their membership fees while 9 all of Defendant's gyms were and remain closed; Defendant intentionally charged Plaintiff's and 10 Class members' debit and credit cards in the full amount of the monthly membership fees while 11 Defendant's gyms were closed; Plaintiff and Class members did not consent to Defendant's
12 charging of their debit and credit cards while Defendant's gyms are closed; Plaintiff and Class
13 members were harmed through Defendant's charging of their debit and credit cards; Defendant's
14 conduct was a substantial factor in causing Plaintiff and Class members' harm.

15 COUNT X

16 Breach of Contract

17 83. Plaintiff hereby incorporate by reference the allegations contained in all preceding
18 paragraphs of this complaint.

19 84. Plaintiff brings this claim individually and on behalf of the members of the 20 proposed Class against Defendant. Plaintiff also brings this claim individually and on behalf of the 21 members of the proposed California Subclass against Defendant.

22 85. Defendant entered into contracts with Plaintiff and Class members to provide access 23 to gym facilities in exchange for the payment of membership fees. Defendant has breached these 24 contracts by continuing to charge Plaintiff and Class members' debit and credit cards while 100
25 percent of its gyms remain closed. Plaintiff and Class members have suffered an injury through the 26 payment of membership fees while not having access to Defendant's gyms.

COUNT XI

Violation of California’s Health Studio Services Contract Law

Civil Code §§ 1812.80, et seq.

86. Plaintiff hereby incorporate by reference the allegations contained in all preceding paragraphs of this complaint.

87. Plaintiff brings this claim individually and on behalf of the members of the proposed Class against Defendant. Plaintiff also brings this claim individually and on behalf of the members of the proposed California Subclass against Defendant.

88. Under Cal. Civ. Code § 1821.92, any contract for heath studio services entered into in reliance upon any willful and false, fraudulent, or misleading information, representation, notice or advertisement of the seller shall be void and unenforceable. Here, Plaintiff and Class members signed up for Defendant’s gym membership based on Defendant’s false and misleading representation that they would have access to Defendant’s gyms 24 hours per day, when, in fact, Defendant unilaterally charged them the full cost of membership while 100 percent of its gyms were closed. Accordingly, the membership contracts are void and Defendant must refund all of the memberships charged while its gyms were and remain closed.

89. Further, Cal. Civ. Code § 1812.85 requires that “[e]very contract for health studio services shall provide that performance of the agreed-upon services will begin within six months after the date the contract is entered into. The consumer may cancel the contract and receive a pro rata refund if the health studio fails to provide the specific facilities advertised or offered in writing by the time indicated.” Here, Defendant advertises that its gyms are open and accessible 24 hours per day, when, in fact, it charges customers full price of monthly members when 100 percent of its gyms are closed. Accordingly, Plaintiff and Class members are entitled to refunds for all fees paid while Defendant’s gyms were and remain closed.

1 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

2 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, seeks 3 judgment against Defendant, as follows:

- 4 a) For an order certifying the Class under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil
5 Procedure and naming Plaintiff as representative of the Class and Plaintiff's
6 attorneys as Class Counsel to represent the Class members;
- 7 b) For an order certifying the California Subclass under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules
8 of Civil Procedure and naming Plaintiff as representative of the California Subclass
9 and Plaintiff's attorneys as Class Counsel to represent the California Subclass 10 members;
- 11 c) For an order declaring that Defendant's conduct violates the statutes and laws 12 referenced herein;
- 13 d) For an order finding in favor of Plaintiff, the Class, and the California Subclass, on 14 all counts asserted herein;
- 15 e) For compensatory and punitive damages in amounts to be determined by the Court 16 and/or jury;
- 17 f) For prejudgment interest on all amounts awarded;
- 18 g) For an order of restitution and all other forms of equitable monetary relief;
- 19 h) For injunctive relief as pleaded or as the Court may deem proper; and
- 20 i) For an order awarding Plaintiff and the Class their reasonable attorneys' fees and 21 expenses and costs of suit.

22 DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

23 Plaintiff demands a trial by jury of all issues so triable.
