STATEWIDE CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Rico Viglietti, on behalf of himself and others similarly situated, brings this action against defendant defendant Apple, Inc. to recover money lost to illegal gambling pursuant to Section 29-19-104 of the Code of Tennessee. See also Tenn. Code Ann. §§ 39-17-501 et seq. Apple promotes, enables, and profits from games downloaded from the App Store and played by numerous Tennessee residents that constitute illegal gambling under the statutory law and the strong public policy of the state of Tennessee. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class pursuant to Rule 23(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

PARTIES, JURISDICTION, AND VENUE

1. Plaintiff Rico Vigliette is an adult resident citizen of the state of Tennessee, residing in Fayette County, Tennessee.

Case 5:21-cv-02412-EJD Document 1 Filed 10/22/20 Page 2 of 16

2. Defendant Apple, Inc. is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the state of California, with its principal place of business in Cupertino, California. Apple does business by agent in this state, district, and division.

3. This is a class action brought by Tennessee citizens against a California company. The amount in controversy exceeds $5 million, exclusive of interest and costs. Subject matter jurisdiction exists pursuant to the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005, 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d).

4. Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2), because this is a "judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred."

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

5. Apple is the most valuable company in the world, with a market capitalization exceeding $2 trillion as of mid-2020. It is by far the world's biggest technology company, now roughly double the size of both Microsoft Corporation and Alphabet Inc., the parent company of Google, respectively. Gone are the days when Steve Jobs's little company began its quixotic quest to take market share away from Microsoft's dominance of the computer software market with its introduction of the upstart MacIntosh personal computer. Applications for personal computers, both desktops and laptops, are now a relatively small part of the software market.

Case 5:21-cv-02412-EJD Document 1 Filed 10/22/20 Page 3 of 16

Mobile devices are now the name of the game and Apple undisputedly dominates that lucrative market.

6. Apple's operating system for the iPhone smartphone and the iPad tablet, known as the iOS, is a rigidly controlled closed system that has the ability to run numerous applications, or apps, available exclusively through Apple's App Store. Apple takes up to 30% of all revenue generated by app sales in the App Store and in-app purchases made on apps obtained through the App Store.<sup>1</sup> Millions of software developers make applications for the Apple iOS. In order to sell apps in the App Store, developers must submit their programs to Apple, which then decides whether the app may be included in the App Store and thus downloaded to iOS devices.

7. Many apps, including those that are the subject of this lawsuit, are initially free to download but contain in-app purchases that a customer can choose to purchase inside the app. Apple provides the payment interface for all such purchases and, as noted, takes a hefty percentage of the money for itself. A 30% processing fee is many times the charge that other payment processors outside the Apple ecosystem, such as Western Union, charge for processing such payments.

&lt;sup>1</sup> Apple takes 30% of all initial app purchases and in-app purchases made during the first year after the customer downloads the app. After that, the percentage drops to 15%.

Case 5:21-cv-02412-EJD Document 1 Filed 10/22/20 Page 4 of 16

8. The money charged for in-app purchases is paid to Apple. An Apple customer is required to provide a method of payment, usually a credit or debit card, for all purchases made in the App Store, including in-app purchases. Apple then has a contractual obligation to the software developers to remit a portion of the money Apple receives from the purchases, typically 70%, to the developers. This contractual arrangement is between Apple and the developers who sell products in the App Store. As between plaintiff and the class members and Apple, however, all in-app and other purchases involve the payment of money to Apple, not the developers.

9. This case concerns Apple's profiting from illegal gambling machine games that it sells in its App Store. Apple and its chief mobile device software competitor, Google, both allow customers to purchase games that are no more or no less than casino-style slot machines, casino style table games, and other common gambling games.

10. There are numerous such gambling games that Apple makes available in the App Store, and there is very little variation on how they work. When a customer downloads the game and opens it for the first time, the customer has a set number of free starting "coins," for example, 100,000 or 1,000,000, to play the slots. The games themselves work precisely like a casino slot machine or other games in Las Vegas. In addition to slots, customers can play blackjack, roulette, poker, keno, bingo, and other card and gambling games. A loss results in a loss of "coins," but the customer has the chance to win more coins. Eventually a customer runs out of coins, and is prompted to use real money to buy more coins for the opportunity to keep playing the game. Hundreds of these games exist. 11. Plaintiff Rico Viglietti downloaded and played several of these casinostyle gambling games, including Lighning Link, Cashman, and Heart of Vegas. Mr. Viglietti downloaded these games from the Apple App Store at least two years ago. More than ninety days ago, he began purchasing coins through the app so he could continue to play for a chance to win free coins that would enable him to enjoy the games for a longer period of time. In the ninety days prior to the filing of this complaint, he paid $106.00 to Apple for the privilege of continuing to play the illegal gambling games.

12. A customer such as plaintiff does not have the ability to collect actual cash as a result of "winning" games, but he does have the ability to win and therefore acquire more playing time. Tennessee law prohibits paying to win anything of value, including free plays. Section 39-7-501 declares:

(1) Gambling is contrary to the public policy of this state and means risking anything of value for a profit whose return is to any degree contingent on chance, or any games of chance associated with casinos, including, but not limited to, slot machines, roulette wheels and the like.

Tenn. Code Ann. § 39-17-501(1). This code section replaced a prior law that allowed such gaming devices if one could win only 15 or fewer replays. See Brackner v. Estes, 698 S.W.2d 637, 641 (Tenn Ct. App. Eastern 1985). A game where a patron pays money for the chance to win more playing time without charge violates Tennessee law.

13. Apple is not some minor or incidental participant in these illegal gambling games. It is the principal promoter and facilitator of the illegal activity. Apple maintains dictatorial control over what apps can be downloaded from the App Store, and the payment method to purchase in-app items. As the maker of the Fortnite game alleged in a recent antitrust injunction lawsuit against Apple:

Apple also imposes unreasonable restraints and unlawfully maintains a total monopoly in the iOS In-App Payment Processing Market. Among the oppressive terms that app developers have to accept, Apple coerces all app developers who wish to use its App Store—the only means with which to distribute apps to iOS users—to use exclusively Apple's own payment processing platform for all in-app purchases of in-app content.

Complaint for Injunctive Relief, Epic Games v. Apple, Inc., in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, August 13, 2020 ¶ 10 (copy attached). As noted, Apple uses its unfettered control over apps played on iOS to extract a hefty 30% tax on all purchases made to buy apps or in-app content such as "coins" to gamble with.

14. Apple has the ability, which it has employed on other apps, to georestrict games so that they can only be played in certain states. In fact, with cash-out gambling games it regularly restricts those game so that they can only be played in states where that type of gambling is legal. Apple has also restricted gambling games such as the ones made the basis of this lawsuit so that minors cannot download or play them. It has the ability with existing technology it currently uses to prevent the games at issue here from being played in this state.

15. Apple's App Store is not just a venue to buy iOS apps. It is a promotional tool. Apple heavily promotes apps, such as the illegal gambling games that form the basis of this complaint, that promise to bring in revenue. Revenue from the App Store is the reason Apple is the most valuable company on the planet.

16. Thus, Apple enables, permits, promotes, and profits from illegal gambling.

TENNESSEE LEGAL FRAMEWORK

17 Tennessee has a strong public policy against gambling in this state, explicitly declared in the state's code. Tenn. Code Ann. § 39-17-501(1). The state's strong public policy against gambling includes a statutory right of persons who spend money on gambling to recover their money.

The Tennessee criminal laws pertaining to gambling are codified at Sections 39-17-501 through 39-17-509 of the Code of Tennessee Annotated. Section 39-17-503 defines the crime of gambling promotion:

(a) A person commits an offense who knowingly induces or aids another to engage in gambling, and:

(1) Intends to derive or derives an economic benefit other than personal winnings from the gambling; or

Tenn. Code Ann. § 39-17-503(a)(1). When Apple facilitates customers downloading these apps from its app store and paying for credits, it "aids another to engage in gambling." When it collects 30% of the payments it facilitates it "derives an economic benefit other than personal winnings from the gambling."

19. The Tennessee code also contains the offense of "Aggravated gambling promotion" defined as follows:

(a) A person commits an offense who knowingly invests in, finances, owns, controls, supervises, manages or participates in a gambling enterprise.

Case 5:21-cv-02412-EJD Document 1 Filed 10/22/20 Page 11 of 16

(b) For purposes of this section, "gambling enterprise" means two (2) or more persons regularly engaged in gambling promotion as defined in § 39-17-503.

Tenn. Code Ann. § 39-17-504. By allowing hundreds of gambling apps (not just two or more) on the app store and facilitating and profiting from their collection of payments, Apple participates in a gambling enterprise and commits the offense of aggravated gambling promotion.

20. As noted above, Tennessee law bans "risking anything of value for a profit whose return is to any degree contingent on chance, or any games of chance associated with casinos, including, but not limited to, slot machines, roulette wheels and the like." Tenn. Code Ann. § 39-17-501. This blanket prohibition replaced a code section that allowed up to 15 free replays on a machine of this type.

21. Tennessee provides a statutory civil cause of action to recover money paid and lost due to gambling. Section 29-19-104 of the Tennessee Code Annotated provides:

Any person who has paid any money, or delivered anything of value, lost upon any game or wager, may recover such money, thing, or its value, by action commenced within ninety (90) days from the time of such payment or delivery.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

22. Plaintiff seeks to certify and represent a class pursuant to Rule 23(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The class sought to be certified is:

All Tennessee residents who downloaded, played, and paid money for additional coins within games from the Apple App Store that featured slots, roulette, blackjack, poker, keno, craps, and other kinds of casinostyle gambling games, bingo, or simulations thereof, where the player had a chance to win coins or other means to play for additional periods of time, during a period commencing 90 days before the filing of this complaint and continuing to a date to be set by the Court following certification. All employees of the Court, and plaintiff's counsel and their families are excluded.

23. This class action satisfies the numerosity requirement of Rule 23(a)(1) because joinder of all members of the plaintiff class is impracticable. There are thousands of Tennessee residents who are members of the class.

25. It also satisfies the commonality requirement of Rule 23(a)(2) because there are central questions of fact and law that are common to the class. Such common questions include, at a minimum, (a) whether these virtually identical gambling games sold through the App Store violate Tennessee's prohibition of illegal gambling; (b) whether gambling for additional play-time is prohibited under Tennessee law; (c) whether Apple promoted gambling through its participation in the sale of in-app purchases through the App Store; (d) whether Apple participated in a gambling enterprise; and (e) whether plaintiff and the class members are entitled to recover their money pursuant to Section 29-19-104 of the Tennessee Code Annotated.

25. The proposed class satisfies the typicality requirement of Rule 23(a)(3) because the named plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the class members.

Case 5:21-cv-02412-EJD Document 1 Filed 10/22/20 Page 13 of 16

Both plaintiff and the class members lost money in an effort to win additional playtime on these illegal gambling games.

26. The named plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent the interests of the class pursuant to Rule 23(a)(4). Plaintiff has no interests that conflict with the interests of the class. Furthermore, plaintiff has retained competent and experienced counsel with decades of experience litigating class cases.

27. Plaintiff seeks certification of a class pursuant to Rule 23(b)(3), which allows class treatment of a claim where:

(3) the court finds that the questions of law or fact common to class members predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for fairly and efficiently adjudicating the controversy. The matters pertinent to these findings include:

(A) the class members' interests in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;

(B) the extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already begun by or against class members;

(C) the desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and

(D) the likely difficulties in managing a class action.

28. The common questions of law and fact in this case vastly predominate over any individual issues affecting only individual class members. The only individual issue presented by these class members is the exact amount of money damages to which each class member is entitled. Such damages issues are routinely held not to predominate over common questions in cases like this. Indeed, the individual damages issues will be quickly and accurately determined by examining Apple's own records.

29. Class treatment is by far superior to individual litigation as a fair and efficient way to adjudicate this controversy. Given the relatively small individual amounts at issue, it unlikely whether there would be any adjudication at all without use of the class device. No individual class member would rationally commence and prosecute a lawsuit where the individual amount in controversy likely would not exceed the filing fees.

30. For this reason, none of the class members have any interest in controlling the prosecution of separate actions.

31. Likewise, to our knowledge, no class member has already commenced an action concerning this controversy.

32. It would much more desirable to concentrate this case in one action rather than allow the prosecution of individual actions because, as noted, such individual actions would likely never be filed because there would be no motivation for any individual class member to file an individual suit.

33. We foresee no particular difficulties in managing this case as a class action because 100% of the necessary information to compensate the individual class members is contained in Google's own records concerning purchases made through the Apple Play Store.

CAUSE OF ACTION

33. Plaintiff, on his own behalf and on behalf of those similarly situated, seek recovery of all sums paid through in-app purchases in these games made through the App Store pursuant to Section 29-19-104 of the Tennessee Code Annotated.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the premises considered, plaintiff asks the Court to:

- 1. Take jurisdiction of this cause;
- Following discovery, certify this case as a class action pursuant to Rule 23(b)(3);
- 3. Appoint the undersigned as Class Counsel and the named plaintiff as class representative;
- 4. Enter a final judgment against Apple awarding plaintiff and the class members a refund of all money paid through the illegal gambling games described herein;
- 5. Award Class Counsel reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses to be paid out of the judgment in favor of the class;

- 6. Award the named plaintiff a reasonable sum of money for his services in this case on behalf of the class, also to be paid out of the judgment in favor of the class;
- 7. Award interest and costs; and
- 8. Award any other relief to which the Court finds plaintiff and the class are entitled.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

- I.(a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.
- (b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)
- (c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".

II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.Cv.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.

United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here. United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.

Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.

Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; NOTE: federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)

- III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.
- IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If there are multiple nature of suit codes associated with the case, pick the nature of suit code that is most applicable. Click here for: Nature of Suit Code Descriptions.
- V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.

Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.

Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.

Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date. Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.

Multidistrict Litigation – Transfer. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407.

Multidistrict Litigation – Direct File. (8) Check this box when a multidistrict case is filed in the same district as the Master MDL docket. PLEASE NOTE THAT THERE IS NOT AN ORIGIN CODE 7. Origin Code 7 was used for historical records and is no longer relevant due to changes in statue.

- VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553 Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service
- VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P. Demand. In this space enter the actual dollar amount being demanded or indicate other demand, such as a preliminary injunction. Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.
- VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS 44 is used to reference related pending cases, if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.
