so life update - I earned my first Mary Kay career car in May & it finally came in! 🥳 this is something I truly never thought I was a capable of ... talk about limiting beliefs.

- since May, my Unit & I have leveled up 2 more car levels & next stop is Pink Caddy! As a brand new unit they have blew my mind ! They've helped me realize that whatever you put your mind to, you can do & more.

So this is me , telling you to just go for it. whatever that may be ... because once you do you're gonna soar sis. I just wish I would've committed sooner 💕
