✨ she can build this so when she does have kids in the future with @teajcool626 she doesn't have to worry about going back to work (she can love and cuddle that baby so much and not worry about finances since she will have built a successful business & have residual income)

✨ she will have higher self esteem and confidence because she took many steps out of her comfort zone to get to where she is now & to where she will be going. We get paid for growing and becoming a better version of ourselves.

✨ she will have a Mary Kay family that will always support her and uplift her! People can't put a price tag on friendships like these 🧡
