alexmortonmindset LOVE is amazing.. really is. Before this woman came into my life I didn't truly understand what real fulfillment and deeper meaning felt like. Ya getting awards, making lots of money, crying on stage in happiness, checking items off the bucket list, helping others become successful, traveling the world, living an elite lifestyle are all GREAT.. but I KNOW becoming the best future husband and father I can be.. and I will be GREAT (it's already done) will be my greatest achievements! Our kids will be proud of their daddy for what he accomplishes and what he does for the lives of others but the LEGACY will be FIRST about being an exceptional husband, father, son, & brother! When achievements! Our kids will be proud of their daddy for what he accomplishes and what he does for the lives of others but the LEGACY will be FIRST about being an exceptional husband, father, son, & brother! When people talk about my papa they briefly talk about his exceptional career as a sports broadcaster and then talk a great deal about the MAN, husband, and father he was! Remember, success without fulfillment is the ultimate failure. I thank GOD I have this wisdom at 32 and not 52. GOD BLESS you and your family heading into this holiday season. Be grateful for the freedoms we still have in this crazy 🌍. GOD, FAMILY, SUCCESS in that order. #AM #Mortons
