About Us

Research can be seen on the website at the Aronia Science tab that details many of the benefits that have been shown to have been found with this native American plant that is finally available with careful growing, minimal and safe processing to retain astonishing powers, and ready for all to maintain well-being or help fix issues that detract from optimal health. 2020 will be an enormous growth year as some international expansion is planned.

How We Got Started

Many people have issues with side effects of medications and seek a natural approach to improve health. I invite you to look at the most powerful super fruit that I've found and how it might benefit you or your loved ones.

With the enormous pandemic income issues, you may know of others who have the time and inclination to improve their streams of income. Please email me at amazinglife4now@gmail.com for information.

Our Answers ?

Tracking Coronavirus Impact - Weekly Pulse Poll

Joyce from Aronia Health Answered this on March 13, 2020

I'm seeing a positive effect in portions of my business because the aronia berry is anti-inflammatory, anti-viral, anti-bacterial, and anti-fungal. As a superfruit with extraordinary properties proven by science, people who are concerned about their immune system, etc., are seeing benefits that... \(more\)

What Makes Your Product or Service Valuable?

Joyce from Aronia Health Answered this on October 27, 2017

Almost everyone would like to have a larger retirement fund or increase their current earnings. I'm working with individuals that are accomplishing that dramatically.
