UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

KERRY HINES, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

Case No.

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

v.

FASHION NOVA, LLC,

Defendant.

Plaintiff Kerry Hines ("Plaintiff"), by her undersigned attorneys, brings this class action complaint against Fashion Nova, LLC ("Defendant" or "Fashion Nova"). Plaintiff's allegations are based upon personal knowledge as to her own acts and upon information and belief as to all other matters.

NATURE OF ACTION

1. This is an action regarding Defendant's intentional suppression of hundreds of thousands of 1-star, 2-star, and 3-star consumer reviews (alternatively, the "Lower-Starred Reviews") from its online website to artificially inflate the value of its products.

Case 2:22-cv-02241 Document 1 Filed 04/18/22 Page 2 of 17 PageID: 2

2. When shopping online, consumers heavily rely on reviews from fellow shoppers. In fact, ninety-three percent (93%) of adults in the United States read reviews before making online purchases.<sup>1</sup>

3. Fashion Nova, an almost exclusively online retailer,<sup>2</sup> has made millions of dollars selling clothing, apparel, accessories, and more (collectively, the "Products") on its website, fashionnova.com.

4. Taking advantage of the fact that prospective consumers rely on fellow consumers' reviews prior to making an online purchase, Defendant intentionally suppressed Lower-Starred Reviews for all Products on its website.

5. Specifically, the Federal Trade Commission found that "[f]rom as early as late 2015 through mid-November 2019, Fashion Nova chose to have four- and five-star reviews automatically post to the website but did not approve or publish hundreds of thousands lower-starred, more negative reviews."<sup>3</sup>

6. Had Defendant not engaged in these deceptive and unfair practices, the average ratings, and inherent value to prospective consumers, of Defendant's Products would have been lower. Moreover, the written reviews would have provided more information to prospective consumers, including concerns over the quality of the Products, prior to deciding whether to purchase said Products. As a result, had Defendant not suppressed the Lower-Starred Reviews, Plaintiff and other consumers would not have purchased a number of Products, or would have paid substantially less for the Products, because the Products would have been rated poorly and deterred Plaintiff and other consumers from making purchases.

7. Plaintiff asserts claims on behalf of herself and similarly situated purchasers of Defendant's Products for violations of the consumer protections laws of New Jersey.

THE PARTIES

8. Plaintiff Kerry Hines is a resident of Clifton, New Jersey and has an intent to remain there, and is therefore a domiciliary of New Jersey. While in New Jersey, Ms. Hines purchased multiple shirts, dresses, jeans, and skirts from Defendant's website in February 2018, September 2018, October 2018, and November 2018. Ms. Hines reviewed and relied on the highly rated consumer reviews on the Products prior to purchasing said Products. Had Defendant not suppressed the Lower-Starred Reviews of the Products, Ms. Hines would not have purchased the Products or would have paid substantially less for them.

Case 2:22-cv-02241 Document 1 Filed 04/18/22 Page 4 of 17 PageID: 4

9. Plaintiff is a reasonable consumer and is not required to scrutinize consumer reviews to ferret out misleading facts and omissions (nor could she), and cannot ascertain facts that are in Defendant's exclusive control. Defendant had exclusive control over consumer reviews published on its website, and its practice to deliberately suppress Lower-Starred Reviews from its websites.

10. Defendant Fashion Nova, LLC is a limited liability company formed under the laws of California with its headquarters at 2801 E. 46th Street, Vernon, California 90058. Defendant owns and manages a primarily online retail business that generates approximately $500 million in revenue per year.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2)(A). There are more than 100 Class Members, the aggregate claims of all members of the proposed Class exceed $5,000,000.00, exclusive of interest and costs, and at least one Class Member is a citizen of a state different than Defendant.

12. Defendant is an "unincorporated association" under the Class Action Fairness Act ("CAFA"), 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d), and Defendant is therefore "a citizen of the State where it has its principal place of business [California] and the State under whose laws it is organized [California]." See 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(10).

13. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because Defendant conducts substantial business in this District such that it has sufficient minimum contacts with this District, and Plaintiff purchased the Products and was exposed to Defendant's misrepresentations and omissions in this District.

14. Venue is proper in this Court under 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred in this District.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

15. When shopping online, consumers heavily rely on reviews made by fellow shoppers. In fact, ninety-three percent (93%) of adults in the United States read reviews before making online purchases.<sup>4</sup>

16. This statistic makes sense. When consumers purchase products online, they are not able to see the product for themselves and are unlikely to trust what a company will say regarding the quality of its own product.

17. As a result, consumers want to see what fellow consumers, who have already made the purchase, have to say. However, not only do consumers want to hear what others who have already made the purchase have to say, consumers also trust and are influenced by others in their position, as roughly "90% of consumers say that positive online reviews influence their buying decisions."<sup>5</sup>

18. One popular form of consumer reviews is leaving a star-rating of the product, ranging from one-star to five-star, with an attached comment explaining why the consumer left such a rating. Five stars means that, on average, past purchasers thought that the product was very good. One star means that, on average, past purchasers though that the product was very bad.

* kick k	RUNS SMALL
Alvaneice S. February 21, 2022	Size Purchased: 15 Usual Size: 13 I was disappointed in this purchase. The jeans run small and have little to no stretch even after I sized up.

19. Consumers rely on these reviews, and the aggregate average star rating of the product just as much as any other type of consumer review. In fact, consumers generally will not even consider a product unless it has a minimum average star-rating of 3.4 stars.<sup>6</sup>

&lt;sup>6</sup> https://www.podium.com/state-of-online-reviews/

Case 2:22-cv-02241 Document 1 Filed 04/18/22 Page 7 of 17 PageID: 7

20. In other words, products with too many lower-star reviews are products that future consumers will not want to purchase or will not pay as much for.

21. Defendant, taking advantage of all this information, enacted unfair and deceptive provisions on its online website regarding consumer reviews of its Products.

22. Specifically, Defendant, through a third-party interface, suppressed any and all Lower-Starred Reviews on all Products on its online website from 2015 to 2019.

23. By intentionally suppressing the Lower-Starred Reviews, Defendant achieved two important goals. First, Defendant was able to artificially inflate the average star rating for each Product on its website, thus making each Product look more attractive to all prospective consumers.

24. With only four-star and five-star reviews remaining on each Product, the lowest average star-rating for any Product on Defendant's website could not be lower than a 4.0 average star-rating, well above the 3.4 average minimum consumers look for when considering a purchase.

Case 2:22-cv-02241 Document 1 Filed 04/18/22 Page 8 of 17 PageID: 8

25. Thus, Defendant's conduct directly led to a false average star rating for all Products on its website.

26. Importantly, this also meant that Defendant inflated the value of each Product, and therefore the price of each Product, in which reviews were suppressed.

27. Second, Defendant's conduct omitted any consumer warnings and/or concerns with the Products, information that other consumers should have been given access to prior and would have utilized to determine whether to purchase Products on Defendant's website.

28. The following are lower-starred consumer reviews on Defendant's website in the past two years—since Defendant ceased suppressing Lower-Starred Reviews on its website—addressing the size, fit, and quality, or lack thereof, of Defendant's Products:

★ kakalak	NOT TRUE TO SIZE
Patricia H. March 11, 2022	I'm a size 3 haven't had any issues with ordering jeans on fashion nova but these jeans were extremely loose on me
★lokik	TOP SUPER SMALL
Luisa D. February 15, 2020	Top super small
★ololola	BAD
Vanessa M.	Size Purchased: Small Usual Size: Small
January 12, 2022	The zipper came broke I want my money back asap

★Jobiok	CHEAP
	Size Purchased: Medium Usual Size: Medium
Jevonie B.
October 30, 2021	The zipper was cheap and poorly made
 kilde	TOO SMALL, I NORMALLY
Leome W.	Size Purchased: 7 Usual Size: 7.5
December 28, 2021	Too small , I normally get a 7 may be bit tight however can't even get my foot in Should be more clear if size aren't true to size

29. These are just some examples of the types of information that from 2015 to 2019 were not available for consumers to review prior to purchasing a Product on Defendant's website.

30. In sum, from 2015 to 2019, consumers relied on Defendant's representations that the Products were highly rated by fellow consumers and did not have any issues.

31. Consumers during that time period had no way of knowing that Defendant was suppressing Lower-Starred Reviews, and were instead left to think that the Products were simply highly rated and of high-quality.

32. In January 2022, the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC") found that Defendant had been suppressing lower-starred consumer reviews throughout its website from 2015 to 2019.<sup>7</sup>

33. Specifically, the FTC found that Defendant "installed a third-party online product review management interface. The interface allow[ed] users to choose to have certain reviews automatically post based upon their star ratings and hold lower-starred reviews for client approval prior to posting."<sup>8</sup>

34. Importantly, "[f]rom as early as late 2015 through mid-November 2019, Fashion Nova chose to have four- and five-star reviews automatically post to the website but did not approve or publish hundreds of thousands lower-starred, more negative reviews."<sup>9</sup>

35. Defendant's representations of the Products during the above time period were materially misleading in that they were likely to deceive a reasonable consumer of other purchasers' true feelings and experiences with the Products, which were more negative than was otherwise advertised.

36. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's misrepresentations, material omissions, and deceptive practices in its website, Plaintiff and others similarly situated consumers have suffered actual injuries from their purchase of one or more of the Products because Plaintiff and other consumers would not have purchased the Products, or would have paid significantly less for them, had Defendant not suppressed the Lower-Starred Reviews.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

37. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class defined as all New Jersey domiciliaries who purchased an item from Fashion Nova's website in New Jersey from March 23, 2016 through and including December 25, 2018 (the "Class").

38. Excluded from the Class are governmental entities, Defendant, Defendant's affiliates, parents, subsidiaries, employees, officers, directors, and coconspirators. Also excluded is any judicial officer presiding over this matter and the members of their immediate families and judicial staff.

39. Plaintiff reserves the right to modify or expand the definition of the Classes to seek recovery on behalf of additional persons as warranted as facts are learned in further investigation and discovery.

40. Members of the Class are so numerous that their individual joinder herein is impracticable. The precise number of Class Members and their identities are unknown to Plaintiff at this time but will be determined through discovery of Defendant's records. Class Members may be notified of the pendency of this action by mail, email, and/or publication.

41. Common questions of law and fact exist as to all Class Members and predominate over questions affecting only individual Class Members. These common legal and factual questions include, but are not limited to:

- (a) whether the online reviews for Fashion Nova items on its website included false and/or misleading statements and/or omissions;
- (b) whether Defendant's conduct violated the New JerseyConsumer Fraud Act; and
- (c) the nature of Plaintiff and the Class's damages.

42. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the proposed Class she seeks to represent because Plaintiff, like all members of the Class, is a New Jersey domiciliary who purchased the Products from Defendant's website in New Jersey during the relevant class periods without knowing that Lower-Starred Reviews were being suppressed by Defendant. The representative Plaintiff, like all members of the Class, has been damaged by Defendant's misconduct in the very same way as the members of the Class. Further, the factual bases of Defendant's misconduct are common to all members of the Class and represent a common thread of misconduct resulting in injury to all members of the Class.

43. Plaintiff is an adequate representative of the Class she seeks to represent because their interests do not conflict with the interests of the members of the Class she seek to represent, she has retained counsel competent and experienced in prosecuting class actions, and she intends to prosecute this action vigorously. The interests of the members of the Class will be fairly and adequately protected by Plaintiff and her counsel.

Case 2:22-cv-02241 Document 1 Filed 04/18/22 Page 13 of 17 PageID: 13

44. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of members of the Class. Each individual member of the Class may lack the resources to undergo the burden and expense of individual prosecution of the complex and extensive litigation necessary to establish Defendant's liability. Individualized litigation increases the delay and expense to all parties and multiplies the burden on the judicial system presented by the complex legal and factual issues of this case. Individualized litigation also presents a potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments. In contrast, the class action device presents far fewer management difficulties and provides the benefits of single adjudication, economy of scale, and comprehensive supervision by a single court on the issue of a defendant's liability. Class treatment of the liability issues will ensure that all claims and claimants are before this Court for consistent adjudication of the liability issues.

COUNT I Violation of New Jersey Consumer Fraud Act, N.J. Stat. §§ 56:8-1, et seq.

45. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference the allegations contained in all preceding paragraphs of this complaint.

46. Plaintiff brings this claim individually and on behalf of the members of the Class against Defendant.

47. This claim is brought under the laws of New Jersey.

Case 2:22-cv-02241 Document 1 Filed 04/18/22 Page 14 of 17 PageID: 14

48. Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered an injury in fact and lost money or property as a result of Defendant's violations of New Jersey's Consumer Fraud Act ("NJCFA"), N.J. Stat. §§ 56:8-1, et seq.

49. The NJCFA protects consumers from "any unconscionable commercial practice, deception, fraud, false pretense, false promise, misrepresentation, or the knowing, concealment, suppression, or omission, in connection with the sale or advertisement of any merchandise." N.J. Stat. § 56:8-2.

50. Defendant engaged in unlawful conduct by deliberately and knowingly engaging in misleading, deceptive, and false statements regarding the Products in the course of Defendant's business. Specifically, Defendant used a third-party interface to deliberately suppress Lower-Starred Reviews of its Products to artificially inflate its Products' review scores and attract more purchasers than its Products would otherwise have received, and/or induce consumers to purchase Products consumers would not have purchased or pay more for Products than consumers otherwise would have.

51. Had Defendant not engaged in these misleading, deceptive, and false practices, Plaintiff and members of the Class would not have purchased the Products on the same terms and would have paid substantially less for the Products.

52. The existence of Lower-Starred Reviews would have been material to Plaintiff and members of the Class.

Case 2:22-cv-02241 Document 1 Filed 04/18/22 Page 15 of 17 PageID: 15

53. Plaintiff and members of the Class suffered ascertainable loss and actual damages as a direct and proximate result of Defendant's concealment, misrepresentations, and/or failure to disclose material information in that Plaintiff and members of the Class would not have purchased the Products on the same terms had they known the truth about the Products. Specifically, Plaintiff and members of the Class were damaged by the difference in value of the Products as represented without the Lower-Starred Reviews versus the value of the Products had the Lower-Starred Reviews not been suppressed, in an amount to be determined through expert testimony and at trial.

54. Pursuant to N.J. Stat. § 56:8-19, Plaintiff and Class Members seek an order awarding damages and any other just and proper relief available under the NJCFA.

55. In accordance with N.J. Stat. § 56:8-20, a copy of this complaint will be sent to the New Jersey Attorney General within ten (10) days of filing the same.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, seeks judgment against Defendant, as follows:

(a) For an order certifying the Class under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, naming Plaintiff as the representative of the Class, and naming Plaintiff's attorneys as Class Counsel to represent the members of the Class;

- (b) For an order declaring the Defendant's conduct violates the statutes referenced herein;
- (c) For an order finding in favor of Plaintiff and the Class on all counts asserted herein;
- (d) For compensatory, statutory, and punitive damages in amounts to be determined by the Court and/or jury;
- (e) For prejudgment interest on all amounts awarded;
- (f) For an order of restitution and all other forms of equitable monetary relief;
- (g) For an order requiring Defendant to undertake a corrective advertising campaign;
- (h) For an order awarding Plaintiff and the Class their reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses and costs of suit; and
- (i) Granting such other and further relief as may be just and proper.

DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38(b), Plaintiff demands a trial by jury of all issues so triable.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

- I.(a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.
- (b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)
- (c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".

II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.Cv.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below. United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here. United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box. Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.

Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; NOTE: federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)

- III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.
- IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If there are multiple nature of suit codes associated with the case, pick the nature of suit code that is most applicable. Click here for: Nature of Suit Code Descriptions.
- V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.

Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.

Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.

Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date. Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.

Multidistrict Litigation – Transfer. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407.

Multidistrict Litigation – Direct File. (8) Check this box when a multidistrict case is filed in the same district as the Master MDL docket. PLEASE NOTE THAT THERE IS NOT AN ORIGIN CODE 7. Origin Code 7 was used for historical records and is no longer relevant due to changes in statute.

- VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553 Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service.
- VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P. Demand. In this space enter the actual dollar amount being demanded or indicate other demand, such as a preliminary injunction. Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.
- VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS 44 is used to reference related pending cases, if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.
