ashley_nicole_hudson And we're off ✈️✈️

We are headed to St. Louis for our JP + LIVE conference. It's more like a family reunion to me and this one is extra SPECIAL!! ❤️👏

We get to learn from the most brilliant minds in the medical 🏥 field who are forward thinking and who are forward thinking and understand the power of healing the human body with nutrition. Food is the cause and food is the cure of most diseases and 90% of chronic disease can be prevented with diet and lifestyle. Did you know that our children will be more harmed by diet than drugs and alcohol combined? Crazy!

As a young "older" mom who is 40 with two kids under five it's my responsibility to give my kids the best future possible. The most profound gift 🎁 I could ever give aside from my Faith is healthier DNA 🧬. Thankfully because of this community and product I feel equipped to do that! Thank you JP for giving my kids a stellar nutritional foundation that will serve them the rest of their life!

I get to spend time with my amazing team all over the world 🌍 who I only get to hug in person at these events. These people are so special to me! It's a family business and a ministry for me.

This product has changed my health, but this business changed my life!
