Discover your definite purpose and then give your life to it. That's what I did.. I made a decision at 16, it became clearer at 18, & then at 21 in North Carolina where I met @proctorgallagher for the first time.. THAT WAS IT. I've used the profession of networking as a vehicle to build a career and impact the lives of people. But I am not the most passionate about energy drinks, skin care, or financial instruments... I AM OBSESSED with helping people WIN BIG & overall create TRUE HAPPINESS in their lives.

I am launching the biggest event or my life October 10th.. (6 days from now) & if you want to  and  it
