this top-secret, category-disrupting, hormone-free product line, scheduled to launch at our 2023 Social Retail Conference, and to show you why it has the potential to utterly transform your life!

Your body's responses to the different phases of your menstrual cycle and the phases of menopause aren't due to hormones alone, but also due to fluctuating metabolites and micronutrients. Project 23 takes a unique approach to hormonal health unlike anything else, by addressing these biochemical responses with easy-to-use, customizable products that sync to your cycle or menopausal needs, all without the use of hormones or soy isoflavones
