bferd_1038 Oh the irony. Sitting in on a 1 hour virtual training session revolving around my company's upcoming product launch that will help support women's hormones - without giving them hormones!.....And here come the cramps. Ffs 🤦‍♀️😭

But I'm fortunate because with my job, I got the chance to get the new product early! So when my next product early! So when my next cycle starts, I'll be free of cramps, bloating, mood swings, headaches, acne breakouts, dips in energy levels, and all the other nasty side effects that come with being a woman! If an easier menstrual cycle, or easing menopause symptoms is at the top of your wish list, let me know!
