kimberlymhamrick Ladies 🙋 I have 8 exclusive access spots to try a new women's hormonal health product I'm launching in March (you CAN get it now)

Think:

- balancing hormones without hormones
- all natural
- a customized formula (meaning the daily supplement ingredients profile changes to support your hormones based on where you are at in your cycle)
- tested and proven ingredients backed by one of the nations top female health doctors

MENOPAUSE

I personally had the worst hot flashes, a bit cranky and emotional, bloated, fatigued... and well, you get the picture. It's no fun and after talking to so many, I am not the only one!!

- I was honored to get early access and my hot flashes have noticeably eased (yes my family is glad... it's chilly in this house 😂) my mood is better, I'm less fatigued & only 3 weeks in!

- My friend DeDe Stott got early access also for the menopausal formula and says "Two weeks in on formula and says "Two weeks in on the menopause formula and what I've noticed most is my attitude is better! Much less agitated at the little things in life. Also, my complexion is brighter and my hair even seems less brittle and has a different shine! Absolutely incredible is what it is!"

- There is also a formula for women who still have a cycle and

- My friend Heather got early access and she is normally on the couch for 3 days with cramps and her cramps were very minimal this month and only lasted ONE DAY! Her energy is also through the ROOF
