the days! 🙌) I had early access to a new Women's Health product line like no other available on the market. These products will significantly impact woman in a HUGE way.

Personally, as a woman who has struggled with heavy periods, cramps, irregular cycles, mood swings, to name a few, this product is going to be a blessing, especially as I enter this next stage of womanhood, peri-menopause!! 🙌

It's a unique approach to supporting hormonal health without giving hormones.

Project 23 provides two separate formulations, addressing the biochemical responses to each formulations, addressing the biochemical responses to each phase of a woman's cycle for menstruating women and for menopausal women.

Undesirable symptoms aren't just due to hormonal imbalances, but to fluctuating metabolites and micronutrients.

Do you experience any of the following symptoms?

- ◆ mood swings
- ◆ hot flashes
- ◆ night sweats
- ◆ painful cramps
- ◆ low libido
- ◆ irregular cycles
- ◆ heavy flow
