I. Introduction.

1. Advertised "sale" prices are important to consumers. Consumers are more likely to purchase an item if they know that they are getting a good deal. Further, if consumers think that a sale will end soon, they are likely to buy now, rather than wait, comparison shop, and buy something else.

2. While there is nothing wrong with a legitimate sale, a fake one—that is, one with made-up regular prices, made-up discounts, and made-up expirations—is deceptive and illegal.

3. California's False Advertising Law prohibits businesses from making statements they know or should know to be untrue or misleading. Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17500. This includes statements falsely suggesting that a product is on sale, when it actually is not. Moreover, California's False Advertising Law specifically provides that "[n]o price shall be advertised as a former price ... unless the alleged former price was the prevailing market price ... within three months next immediately preceding" the advertising. Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17501.

Likewise, California's Consumer Legal Remedies Act prohibits "advertising goods or services with the intent not to sell them as advertised" and specifically prohibits "false or misleading statements of fact concerning reasons for, existence of, or amounts of price reductions." Cal. Civ.
Code § 1770(a)(9), (13).

5. In addition, the Federal Trade Commission's regulations prohibit false or misleading "former price comparisons," for example, making up "an artificial, inflated price ... for the purpose of enabling the subsequent offer of a large reduction" off that price. 16 C.F.R. § 233.1. They also prohibit false or misleading "retail price comparisons" and "comparable value comparisons," for example, ones that falsely suggest that the seller is "offer[ing] goods at prices lower than those being charged by others for the same merchandise" when this is not the case. 16 C.F.R. § 233.1.

6. So, as numerous courts have found, fake sales violate these laws. They also violate California's general prohibition on unlawful, unfair, and deceptive business practices. See Cal. Bus.

27 7. Defendant The Shade Store, LLC ("The Shade Store" or "Defendant") makes, sells, 28 and markets window covering products and accessories, including but not limited to, blinds, shades, and drapes ("The Shade Store Products" or "Products"). The Products are sold online through Defendant's website, www.theshadestore.com.

8. Defendant's website prominently advertises purportedly time-limited, sitewide sales. These advertisements include purported regular prices and purported discounts. For example:

1 10. But these advertisements are false. Defendant always offers sitewide discounts, so it 2 never sells any of its Products at the purported regular price. The sales are not limited in time, but 3 instead immediately reset and continue to be available (albeit, in certain cases, with a different 4 name).

11. Ms. Crowder bought roller shades from The Shade Store online on www.theshadestore.com. Like Defendant's other customers, when Plaintiff bought the Products, Defendant advertised that a purported sale was going on, and that the Products were heavily discounted. Plaintiff believed that the Products that she purchased usually retailed for the displayed regular price. She further believed that she was getting a substantial discount from the regular price, and that the sale would end soon. These reasonable beliefs are what caused her to buy from Defendant. If she had known that the Products she purchased was not on sale, she would not have bought them.

12. But none of that was true. Defendant's published regular prices were not the prevailing regular prices. The sale Defendant advertised was not really a time-limited sale. Had Defendant been truthful, Plaintiff and other consumers would not have purchased the Products or would have paid less for them.

17 13. Plaintiff brings this case for herself and the other customers who purchased The Shade18 Store Products.

II. Parties.

14. Plaintiff Sharon Crowder is domiciled in Monterey, California.

15. The proposed class includes citizens of every state.

22 16. Defendant The Shade Store, LLC is a Delaware company with its principal place of 23 business at 21 Abendroth Avenue, Port Chester, New York, 10573.

III. Jurisdiction and Venue.

This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2). The amount in controversy exceeds $5,000,000, exclusive of interest and costs, and the matter is a class action in which one or more members of the proposed class are citizens of a state different from Defendant.

1 18. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant. Defendant does business in 2 California. It advertises and sells its Products in California, has physical stores in California, and 3 serves a market for its Products in California. Due to Defendant's actions, its Products have been 4 marketed and sold to consumers in California, and harmed consumers in California. Plaintiff's claims arise out of Defendant's contacts with this forum. Due to Defendant's actions, Plaintiff 6 purchased one of Defendant's Products in California, and was harmed in California.

7 19. Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1) and 28 U.S.C. § 1391(d) because 8 Defendant would be subject to personal jurisdiction in this District if this District were a separate 9 state. Defendant advertises and sells its Products to customers in this District, serves a market for its 10 Products in this District, and Plaintiff's claims arise out of Defendant's contacts in this forum. 11 Venue is also proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2) because a substantial part of the events giving rise 12 to the claim occurred here.

13 20. Divisional Assignment. This case should be assigned to the San Jose division. See 14 L.R. 3-2(c). A substantial part of the events giving rise to the claims occurred in Monterey, 15 California.

21. Defendant makes, sells, and markets window covering products and accessories, 18 including but not limited to, blinds, shades, and drapes. Defendant sells its Products directly to 19 consumers online, through its website, www.theshadestore.com.

22. Defendant's website creates an illusion that customers are receiving a limited-time discount. Defendant does this by advertising fake limited-time sales, fake regular prices, and fake discounts based on the fake regular prices. For example, Defendant advertises purportedly timelimited sales that end on a certain date, where consumers can receive "20% OFF ALL ORDERS":

Defendant's sales on all Products have persisted continuously since at least April 23,         2020. For example, 45 randomly selected screenshots of Defendant's website, website were captured in 2023 by visiting the website and recording screen captures. One hundred percent of the 85 screenshots of Defendant's website, captured on the Wayback Machine and directly on the website, displayed a purportedly time-limited sitewide discount of at least 15%.<sup>1</sup>

26. In addition, Defendant's website lists fake regular prices (that is, prices reflecting the list price or value of an item) and fake discounts.

27. For example, on January 23, 2023, Defendant advertised "15% off all orders," and claimed this sale "ends 2/1." On this day, Defendant offered its Roller Shades, which has a purported regular price of $350:

28. But the truth is, the Roller Shades' listed regular price of $350 is not their prevailing price. Instead, they are always at a discount from the purported regular price (e.g., on February 2, 2023, the day that the "15% off all orders" sale was supposed to have ended, the Roller Shades were on sale for $298 with a purported regular price of $350; on May 3, 2023, they were once again on sale for $298 with a purported regular price of $350).

29. By listing fake regular prices and fake discounts, Defendant misleads consumers into believing that they are getting a good deal.

Defendant's advertisements are unfair, deceptive, and unlawful.

30. California's False Advertising Law prohibits businesses from making statements they know or should know to be untrue or misleading. Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17500. This includes statements falsely suggesting that a product is on sale, when it actually is not. Moreover, California's False Advertising Law specifically provides that "[n]o price shall be advertised as a former price ... unless the alleged former price was the prevailing market price ... within three months next immediately preceding" the advertising. Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17501.

31. In addition, California's Consumer Legal Remedies Act prohibits "advertising goods or services with the intent not to sell them as advertised" and specifically prohibits "false or 10 misleading statements of fact concerning reasons for, existence of, or amounts of price reductions." Cal. Civ. Code § 1770(a)(9), (13).

32. In addition, the Federal Trade Commission's regulations prohibit false or misleading "former price comparisons," for example, making up "an artificial, inflated price ... for the purpose of enabling the subsequent offer of a large reduction" off that price. 16 C.F.R. § 233.1. They also prohibit false or misleading "retail price comparisons" and "comparable value comparisons," for example, ones that falsely suggest that the seller is "offer[ing] goods at prices lower than those being charged by others for the same merchandise" when this is not the case. 16 C.F.R. § 233.1.

33. And finally, California's Unfair Competition Law bans unlawful, unfair, and deceptive business practices. See Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200.

Here, as described in detail above, Defendant made untrue and misleading statements 34. about its prices. Defendant advertised former prices that were not true former prices and were not the prevailing market price in the three months immediately preceding the advertisement. In addition, Defendant advertised goods or services with the intent not to sell them as advertised, for example, by advertising goods having certain former prices and/or market values without the intent to sell goods having those former prices and/or market values. Defendant made false or misleading statements of fact concerning the reasons for, existence of, and amounts of price reductions, including false statements regarding the reasons for its sitewide sales (e.g., advertising a seasonal "Summer Sale," when in fact the sale is ongoing), the existence of sitewide sales, and the amounts of 1 price reductions resulting from those sales. And Defendant engaged in unlawful, unfair, and 2 deceptive business practices.

Defendant's advertisements harm consumers.

35. Based on Defendant's advertisements, reasonable consumers would expect that the listed regular prices are former prices at which Defendant actually sells its Products, and are the prevailing prices for the Products.

36. Reasonable consumers would also expect that, if they purchase during the sale, they will receive an item whose regular price and/or market value is the advertised regular price and that they will receive the advertised discount from the regular purchase price.

10 37. In addition, consumers are more likely to buy the product if they believe that the product is on sale and that they are getting a product with a higher regular price and/or market value 12 at a substantial discount.

13 38. Consumers that are presented with discounts are substantially more likely to make the 14 purchase. "Nearly two-thirds of consumers surveyed admitted that a promotion or a coupon often closes the deal, if they are wavering or are undecided on making a purchase."<sup>2</sup> And, "two-thirds of 15 16 consumers have made a purchase they weren't originally planning to make solely based on finding a 17 coupon or discount," while "80% [of consumers] said they feel encouraged to make a first-time purchase with a brand that is new to them if they found an offer or discount."<sup>3</sup> 18

39. Similarly, when consumers believe that an offer is expiring soon, the sense of urgency makes them more likely to buy a product.<sup>4</sup> purchases based on false information.

Plaintiff was misled by Defendant's misrepresentations.

41. On January 26, 2022, Ms. Crowder purchased two sets of Roller Shades from Defendant. She purchased the Products from Defendant's website, www.theshadestore.com, while living in Monterey, California. Ms. Crowder's invoice represented that the regular price of the Products was $1,860 ($930 each) plus tax, and that after receiving a discount of $372, Ms. Crowder's discounted price was $1,488 plus tax.

42. Ms. Crowder read and relied on the representations on the website that the Products had the published regular price and that this was their market value, and that she was receiving the advertised discount as compared to the regular price. She also relied on the representations that the sale was limited in time, and would end soon. She would not have made the purchase if she had known that the Products were not discounted as advertised, and that she was not receiving the advertised discount.

43. Ms. Crowder faces an imminent threat of future harm. Ms. Crowder would purchase
The Shade Store Products again if she could feel sure that Defendant would not illegally deceive her.
But without an injunction, she cannot trust that Defendant will comply with the consumer protection statutes. Accordingly, Ms. Crowder is unable to rely on Defendant's advertising in the future, and so cannot purchase the Products she would like to.

Defendant breached its contract.

44. When Ms. Crowder purchased and paid for the Products that she bought as described above, she accepted offers that Defendant made, and thus, a contract was formed at the time that she made the purchase. The offer was to provide Products having a particular listed regular price and market value, and to provide those Products at the discounted price advertised on the website.

45. Ms. Crowder and Defendant entered a contract.

46. The regular price and market value of the Product that Ms. Crowder would receive, and the amount of the discount that she would be provided off the regular price of the items, were specific and material terms of the contract.

1 47. Ms. Crowder performed her obligations under the contract by providing Defendant 2 with the discounted price.

48. Defendant breached its contract by failing to provide Ms. Crowder with Products with a market value equal to the regular price displayed on its website, and by failing to provide the discount promised.

No adequate remedy at law.

49. Plaintiff seeks damages and, in the alternative, restitution. Plaintiff is permitted to seek equitable remedies in the alternative because she has no adequate remedy at law.

A legal remedy is not adequate if it is not as certain as an equitable remedy. The 50. 10 elements of Plaintiff's equitable claims are different and do not require the same showings as Plaintiff's legal claims. For example, Plaintiff's FAL claim under Section 17501 (an equitable 12 claim) is predicated on a specific statutory provision, which prohibits advertising merchandise using 13 a former price if that price was not the prevailing market price within the past 90 days. Cal. Bus. & 14 Prof. Code § 17501. Plaintiff may be able to prove these more straightforward factual elements, and 15 thus prevail under the FAL, while not being able to prove one or more elements of their legal claims. 16 As a second example, to obtain damages under the CLRA, a plaintiff must show that they complied 17 with the CLRA's notice requirement for damages. No such requirements exist to obtain restitution. 18 Because a plaintiff must make this additional showing to obtain damages, rather than restitution, the 19 legal remedies are more uncertain.

51. In addition, the remedies at law available to Plaintiff is not equally prompt or otherwise efficient. The need to schedule a jury trial may result in delay. And a jury trial will take longer, and be more expensive, than a bench trial.

Class Action Allegations.

52. Plaintiff brings the asserted claims on behalf of the proposed class of:

Nationwide Class: all persons who, within the applicable statute of limitations period, • purchased one or more The Shade Store Products advertised at a discount on Defendant's website.

Class Action Complaint

Case No. 5:23-cv-2331

• California Subclass: all persons who, while in the state of California and within the applicable statute of limitations period, purchased one or more The Shade Store Products advertised at a discount on Defendant's website.

53. The following people are excluded from the proposed class: (1) any Judge or Magistrate Judge presiding over this action and the members of their family; (2) Defendant, Defendant's subsidiaries, parents, successors, predecessors, and any entity in which the Defendant or its parents have a controlling interest and their current employees, officers and directors; (3) persons who properly execute and file a timely request for exclusion from the class; (4) persons whose claims in this matter have been finally adjudicated on the merits or otherwise released; (5) Plaintiff's counsel and Defendant's counsel, and their experts and consultants; and (6) the legal representatives, successors, and assigns of any such excluded persons.

Numerosity & Ascertainability

54. The proposed class contains members so numerous that separate joinder of each member of the class is impractical. There are tens or hundreds of thousands of class members.

55. Class members can be identified through Defendant's sales records and public notice.

Predominance of Common Questions

56. There are questions of law and fact common to the proposed class. Common questions of law and fact include, without limitation:

(1) whether Defendant made false or misleading statements of fact in its advertisements;

(2) whether Defendant violated California's consumer protection statutes;

(3) whether Defendant committed a breach of contract;

(4) whether Defendant committed a breach of an express or implied warranty;

(5) damages needed to reasonably compensate Plaintiff and the proposed class.

Typicality & Adequacy

5 57. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the proposed class. Like the proposed class, Plaintiff 6 purchased The Shade Store Products advertised at a discount on Defendant's website. There are no 7 conflicts of interest between Plaintiff and the class.

Superiority

58. A class action is superior to all other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual litigation of each claim is impractical. It would be unduly burdensome to have individual litigation of millions of individual claims in separate lawsuits, every one of which would present the issues presented in this lawsuit.

First Cause of Action:

Violation of California's False Advertising Law, Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17500 et. seq. (By Plaintiff and the California Subclass)

59. Plaintiff incorporates each and every factual allegation set forth above.

60. Plaintiff brings this cause of action on behalf of herself and members of the California Subclass.

61. Defendant has violated Sections 17500 and 17501 of the Business and Professions Code.

62. As alleged more fully above, Defendant advertises former prices on its website along with discounts. Defendant does this, for example, by crossing out a higher price (e.g., $350) and displaying it next to the discount price.

63. The prices advertised as former prices by Defendant were not the true former prices of the Products. Accordingly, Defendant's statements about the former prices of its Products were untrue and misleading.

64. In addition, Defendant's former price advertisements did not state clearly, exactly, and conspicuously when, if ever, the former prices prevailed. Defendant's advertisements did not indicate whether or when the purported former prices were offered at all.

65. As a result, Defendant violated, and continues to violate, Sections 17500 and 17501 to induce Plaintiff and the subclass to make purchases on its website based on the advertised former prices.

Case 5:23-cv-02331 Document 1 Filed 05/12/23 Page 17 of 26

1 66. Defendant's misrepresentations were intended to induce reliance, and Plaintiff saw, 2 read, and reasonably relied on the statements when purchasing Defendant's Products. Defendant's 3 misrepresentations were a substantial factor in Plaintiff's purchase decision. 4 67. In addition, subclass-wide reliance can be inferred because Defendant's 5 misrepresentations were material, i.e., a reasonable consumer would consider them important in 6 deciding whether to buy the Products. 7 68. Defendant's misrepresentations were a substantial factor and proximate cause in 8 causing damages and losses to Plaintiff and the subclass. 9 Plaintiff and the subclass were injured as a direct and proximate result of Defendant's 69. 10 conduct because (a) they would not have purchased The Shade Store Products if they had known the 11 truth, and/or (b) they overpaid for the Products because the Products were sold at a price premium 12 due to the misrepresentation. 13 Second Cause of Action: 14 Violation of California's Consumer Legal Remedies Act 15 (By Plaintiff and the California Subclass) 16 70. Plaintiff incorporates each and every factual allegation set forth above. 17 71. Plaintiff brings this cause of action on behalf of herself and members of the California Subclass. 18 19 Plaintiff and the subclass are "consumers," as the term is defined by California Civil 72. Code § 1761(d). 20 21 73. Plaintiff and the subclass have engaged in "transactions" with Defendant as that term 22 is defined by California Civil Code § 1761(e). 23 74. The conduct alleged in this Complaint constitutes unfair methods of competition and 24 unfair and deceptive acts and practices for the purpose of the CLRA, and the conduct was undertaken 25 by Defendant in transactions intended to result in, and which did result in, the sale of goods to 26 consumers. 27 As alleged more fully above, Defendant made and disseminated untrue and 75. 28 misleading statements of facts in its advertisements to subclass members. Defendant did this by Class Action Complaint 15 Case No. 5:23-cv-2331 using fake regular prices, i.e., regular prices that are not the prevailing prices, and advertising fake discounts.

3 76. Defendant violated, and continues to violate, Section 1770(a) of the California Civil 4 Code.

77. Defendant violated, and continues to violate, Section 1770(a)(5) of the California Civil Code by representing that Products offered for sale on its website have characteristics or benefits that they do not have. Defendant represents that the value of its Products is greater than it actually is by advertising inflated regular prices and fake discounts for the Products.

78. Defendant violated, and continues to violate, Section 1770(a)(9) of the California Civil Code. Defendant violates this by advertising its Products as being offered at a discount, when in fact Defendant does not intend to sell the Products at a discount.

79. And Defendant violated, and continues to violate section 1770(a)(13) by making false or misleading statements of fact concerning reasons for, existence of, or amounts of, price reductions on its website, including by (1) misrepresenting the regular price of Products on its website, (2) advertising discounts and savings that are exaggerated or nonexistent, (3) misrepresenting that the discounts and savings are unusually large, when in fact they are regularly available, and (4) misrepresenting the reason for the sale (e.g., "Summer Sale," when in fact the sale is ongoing and not limited to the summer).

80. Defendant's representations were likely to deceive, and did deceive, Plaintiff and reasonable consumers. Defendant knew, or should have known through the exercise of reasonable care, that these statements were inaccurate and misleading.

81. Defendant's misrepresentations were intended to induce reliance, and Plaintiff saw, read, and reasonably relied on them when purchasing the Products. Defendant's misrepresentations were a substantial factor in Plaintiff's purchase decision.

82. In addition, subclass-wide reliance can be inferred because Defendant's misrepresentations were material, i.e., a reasonable consumer would consider them important in deciding whether to buy the Products.

- B3. Defendant's misrepresentations were a substantial factor and proximate cause in causing damages and losses to Plaintiff and the subclass.
- 84. Plaintiff and the subclass were injured as a direct and proximate result of Defendant's conduct because (a) they would not have purchased The Shade Store Products if they had known the discounts and/or regular prices were not real, and/or (b) they overpaid for the Products because the Products were sold at a price premium due to the misrepresentation.

7 85. Accordingly, pursuant to California Civil Code § 1780(a)(2), Ms. Crowder, on behalf 8 of herself and all other members of the subclass, seeks injunctive relief.

9 86. CLRA § 1782 NOTICE. On May 5, 2023, a CLRA demand letter was sent to 10 Defendant's New York headquarters via certified mail (return receipt requested), that provided notice
11 of Defendant's violations of the CLRA and demanded that Defendant correct the unlawful, unfair, 12 false and/or deceptive practices alleged here. Defendant does not have a California headquarters. If 13 Defendant does not fully correct the problem for Plaintiff and for each member of the California
14 Subclass within 30 days of receipt, Plaintiff and the California Subclass will seek all monetary relief 15 allowed under the CLRA.

Third Cause of Action:

Violation of California's Unfair Competition Law

The Unlawful Prong

26 91. Defendant engaged in unlawful conduct by violating the CLRA and FAL, as alleged 27 above and incorporated here. In addition, Defendant engaged in unlawful conduct by violating the 28 FTCA. The FTCA prohibits "unfair or deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce" and unlawful, fraudulent, and unfair conduct (i.e., violating each of the three prongs of the UCL).

prohibits the dissemination of false advertisements. 15 U.S.C. § 45(a)(1), 15 U.S.C. § 52(a). As the FTC's regulations make clear, Defendant's false pricing schemes violate the FTCA. 16 C.F.R. § 233.1, § 233.2.

92. As alleged in detail above, Defendant's representations that its Products were on sale, that the sale was limited in time, that the Products had a specific regular price, and that the customers were receiving discounts were false and misleading.

93. Defendant's representations were misleading to Plaintiff and other reasonable consumers.

10 94. Plaintiff relied upon Defendant's misleading representations and omissions, as 11 detailed above.

The Unfair Prong

95. As alleged in detail above, Defendant committed "unfair" acts by falsely advertising that its Products were on sale, that the sale was limited in time, that the Products had a specific regular price, and that the customers were receiving discounts.

96. Defendant violated established public policy by violating the CLRA, the FAL, and the FTCA, as alleged above and incorporated here. The unfairness of this practice is tethered to a legislatively declared policy (that of the CLRA and FAL).

97. The harm to Plaintiff and the subclass greatly outweighs the public utility of Defendant's conduct. There is no public utility to misrepresenting the price of a consumer product.
This injury was not outweighed by any countervailing benefits to consumers or competition.
Misleading consumer products only injure healthy competition and harm consumers.

Plaintiff and the subclass could not have reasonably avoided this injury. As alleged above, Defendant's representations were deceptive to reasonable consumers like Plaintiff.

25 99. Defendant's conduct, as alleged above, was immoral, unethical, oppressive, 26 unscrupulous, and substantially injurious to consumers.

1 100. For all prongs, Defendant's representations were intended to induce reliance, and 2 Plaintiff saw, read, and reasonably relied on them when purchasing The Shade Store Products. 3 Defendant's representations were a substantial factor in Plaintiff's purchase decision. 4 101. In addition, subclass-wide reliance can be inferred because Defendant's 5 representations were material, i.e., a reasonable consumer would consider them important in deciding 6 whether to buy The Shade Store Products. 7 102. Defendant's representations were a substantial factor and proximate cause in causing 8 damages and losses to Plaintiff and subclass members. 9 Plaintiff and the subclass were injured as a direct and proximate result of Defendant's 103. 10 conduct because (a) they would not have purchased The Shade Store Products if they had known that 11 they were not discounted, and/or (b) they overpaid for the Products because the Products were sold at 12 the regular price and not at a discount. 13 Fourth Cause of Action: 14 Breach of Contract 15 (By Plaintiff and the Nationwide Class) 16 104. Plaintiff incorporates each and every factual allegation set forth above. 17 105. Plaintiff brings this cause of action on behalf of herself and the Nationwide Class. In 18 the alternative, Plaintiff brings this cause of action on behalf of herself and the California Subclass. 19 Plaintiff and class members entered into contracts with Defendant when they placed 106. 20 orders to purchase Products on Defendant's website. 21 107. The contracts provided that Plaintiff and class members would pay Defendant for the 22 Products ordered. 23 108. The contracts further required that Defendant provides Plaintiff and class members 24 with Products that have a former price, and a market value, equal to the regular price displayed on 25 the website. They also required that Defendant provides Plaintiff and the class members with the 26 discount advertised on the website. These were specific and material terms of the contract. 27 109. The specific discounts were a specific and material term of each contract, and were 28 displayed to Plaintiff and class members at the time they placed their orders. 19

1 110. Plaintiff and class members paid Defendant for the Products they ordered, and 2 satisfied all other conditions of their contracts.

111. Defendant breached the contracts with Plaintiff and class members by failing to provide Products that had a prevailing market value equal to the regular price displayed on its website, and by failing to provide the promised discounts. Defendant did not provide the discounts that Defendant had promised.

112. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's breaches, Plaintiff and class members were deprived of the benefit of their bargained-for exchange, and have suffered damages in an amount to be established at trial.

Fifth Cause of Action:

Breach of Express Warranty

(By Plaintiff and the Nationwide Class)

113. Plaintiff incorporates each and every factual allegation set forth above.

14 114. Plaintiff brings this cause of action on behalf of herself and the Nationwide Class. In 15 the alternative, Plaintiff brings this cause of action on behalf of herself and the California Subclass.

16 115. Defendant, as the manufacturer, marketer, distributor, supplier, and/or seller of The 17 Shade Store Products, issued material, written warranties by advertising that the Products had a 18 prevailing market value equal to the regular price displayed on Defendant's website. This was an 19 affirmation of fact about the Products (i.e., a representation about the market value) and a promise 20 relating to the goods.

21 116. This warranty was part of the basis of the bargain and Plaintiff and members of the 22 class relied on this warranty.

23 117. In fact, the Products' stated market value was not the prevailing market value. Thus,
24 the warranty was breached.

25 118. Plaintiff provided Defendant with notice of this breach of warranty, by mailing a 26 notice letter to Defendant's headquarters, on May 5, 2023.

27 119. Plaintiff and the class were injured as a direct and proximate result of Defendant's 28 breach, and this breach was a substantial factor in causing harm, because (a) they would not have
