My husband has had to wipe a lot of my tears lately.

Why? Because we are both witnessing miracle upon miracle.

😭
Just having celebrated our best month EVER, reaching 7 figures in our explosive businesss, a post from 2 years ago popped up.

🙏
I have been journaling for 6 years. It is prove of the story.

🙏
The power of faith, what you think, is what you will become.

🙏
To our team & business partners across this fine country, we prayed & believed you would be here even before we knew you. We are so proud & humbled by the hard work & dedicated souls here at Amare.

👏👏👏👏
Look what I wrote 2 years ago. 🙏 Then LOOK what is happening not only in our lives but the lives of thousands & soon MILLIONS. To GOD be the glory.

Expect a miracle.

Two years ago I was living out of a camper, fighting for my husband's miracle.

I surrendered my life to God. And the floodgates open.

An opportunity arose the SAME day Derek was diagnosed.

To do something that had NEVER been done before.
To pioneer the 1st ever Mental Wellness Company...
Amare Global.

A holistic approach to health through the gut brain connection.

We are changing lives. No one can deny the results people are getting. Most wouldnt believe me if I told them.

To share the testimony is to reveal God's glory.

I have watched enough suffering in my life, & realized God will use our experiences to serve others.

The trail has been blazed.

We are changing lives. Saving lives & praying for pioneers to join us & blaze trails beyond our imagination.

We will take this mission around the world. Abundance is right around the corner!

Join us. We can't do this alone. Together we will move mountains.

I expect nothing less than a multitude of miracles.

Two years later, we have become movement makers.

🙌 It's happening 🙌

This story isn't over. It's to be continued.....
