This week marks FIVE years since I joined a little company then called Usborne Books & More. I was a book lover with young kids at home, and I really just wanted a discount on the books I knew I'd be buying. 🤪❤️📖

Little did I know how big of an impact PaperPie would have on my life. My kids are surrounded by books and already have a deep curiosity and love of learning. I have like minded friends around the country... book people are the best people. And of course the extra income is nice as well. 😊

Have you ever considered doing what I do? I paid $89 for my kit 5 years ago. This month it's only $5!!! 🤯 That $5 gets you a $20 product credit, 6 months of free website fees, no minimums or quotas, and 33.5% commission/discount thru July (25% after that)! I promise this isn't a typical "everyone join my team" kind of post. I truly am blown away by the opportunity PaperPie has for you, and I want to make sure everyone knows about it. The $5 kit option ends tomorrow, June 30!!

❤️ Ask me anything!!

Are you interested in earning a little extra income this summer?
