My friend Allie shares:

This pink drink you guys 🙌 started it all. Did you check out some of my friends' transformations from my post yesterday?! Gut health is so important and these products are the real deal.

When I lost weight, eliminated my life long migraines, and started having the energy to enjoy my days again, I started sharing them with my ig followers.. and this past year has been a whirlwind of excitement as I've grown a full fledge business from my iPhone. No stock, no parties, no investment... just sharing my true experiences and a link to a website full of natural, super clean plant-based wellness products 🌿

My next promotion with Plexus averages an annual salary of 208k.. that's 17k a month that I didn't have coming in two years ago. I share this to show you that it's real. I'm a mom of 4 little kids, a multiple business owner and a professional photographer, and I fit this extraordinary business into the nooks and crannies of my day. Because why NOT! If you loved your Starbucks lattes and Starbs paid you 17k a month to share your honest thoughts on ig, would you do it? 🤔 Social selling and network marketing in 2021 isn't going anywhere.. it's just getting started. As a product of a business minded, entrepreneurial family, I couldn't pass this up and neither should you!
