I love that I live a life that allows me the opportunity to say yes to adventure! 🇳🇮 ✈️❤️

I'm so pleased to announce I'm headed back to Guatemala with the beautiful ethical fashion brand I've worked with for the past decade, @tradesofhope, to spend time again with our artisan partners!

This will be my fourth trip and third time to Guatemala! I cannot wait to sit at the table to learn, connect and build bonds with the women of Guatemala and the amazing Partners traveling with me to meet them! TOGETHER we are creating jobs on both sides of the equation and making the world a better place!
