Not everyone gets to be a manager at a company
while still in school.

Being able to manage a team every single day has allowed my interpersonal skills to be miles ahead
of my peers.

I have always wanted to be in a job where I can genuinely help people. I wanted to influence, empower and motivate young professionals the way my mentors did for me. Getting the chance to make an impact on others has been so rewarding.

My DVM, John Carpenter, was the first person who even showed me that I could be successful and still get to experience the things that made me happy. There's not many jobs out there that let you travel the world and do what you love!

I truly knew I was in the right place when I watched my reps achieve their goals of transitioning into management and developed into great leaders. It's incredibly

I truly believe pursuing a career with Vector was the best choice I could've made.

Working for a company that actually cares for its people and their success is a blessing. You aren't reduced to a number, you are valued.
