vectormarketing  Are you considering working the same draining job this summer - just because that's what you've always done?

It may be time for a change...

"Before starting with Vector, I worked in corporate sales and it really drained me. It was the same thing over and over, and I was looking for a more rewarding sales job that allowed me to work remotely.

My girlfriend was a manager at the time, and she recommended I give selling Cutco a shot. I was surrounded by a lot of people within

Sales isn't for everyone, but I'm a strong believer that everyone should at least give it a shot.

Sales skills are life skills,
and not only will you learn how to sell a product but more importantly it'll teach you how to sell yourself.

My girlfriend was a manager at the time, and she recommended I give selling Cutco a shot. I was surrounded by a lot of people within the business for a while and saw how much they love what they did so I decided to go for it and I haven't looked back since.

When I realized I would have to generate my own leads, I was a little nervous because it was different from what I was used to. But then I got advice from my manager and others in the business on how to get more recommendations. There are so many people and resources to tap into to consistently grow your business, and I was able to quickly expand outside of my circle & grow

At first, I was nervous about being paid by my performance, but once I started to push myself and grow within the business it no longer became a worry.

I love that the commissions are clear and how much I want to make is all up to me.

In my previous sales job, I was paid through salary and small bonuses. I was nervous about being paid by my performance at first, but once I started to push myself and grow within the business it no longer became a worry. I love that the commissions are clear and how much I want to make is all up to me.

Working in direct sales with Vector is so much more rewarding than traditional sales jobs. I enjoy being paid weekly, making my own schedule, meeting customers face to face, getting paid according to the work I put in, and can't forget traveling with Vector!

Sales isn't for everyone, but I'm a strong believer that everyone should give it a shot. After all - sales skills are life skills and will teach you not only how to sell a product but most importantly how to sell yourself." - Lorenzo Halloran, Field Sales Manager | $55K in Cutco sales (East Valley, AZ)
