You don't need to be frustrated about why / how you're not where you want to be at this very moment. Everything big started small and the people you aspire to be like one day went through challenges, struggle, & pain.. just like you're going through right now.

I started with 10 people in a dorm room, 6 said no, 4 were on the fence, 2 joined, & 1 quit. Find purpose in the pain. I look

& 1 quit. Find purpose in the pain. I look back today and I thank GOD all those people quit my business, joined a competitor and tried to take me out. I helped many people hit 100K - 1M+ a year and they decided to leave. All the lies, manipulations, back stabbing, 🤡 talking, I look back now and it all makes sense. I needed all of that pain to find my purpose and build my character.

You may be thinking, "Alex I've been building my business for 3, maybe even

5 years, and still no big results." That's OK.. everyone has their own timing on when they'll develop enough to attract the success they desire. You're not in competition with anyone except the person you were last year. Focus on getting better, mastering the skills, learning the spiritual side of success, developing your higher faculties, & mastering your mind. Success will be yours. The only way you "fail" is if you give up (quit) or do absolutely nothing. So keep going and keep a positive years. The only way you can fail is if you give up (quit) or do absolutely nothing. So keep going and keep a positive attitude. Hyper focus on the day to day methods of operation and executing on those daily tasks. Don't get so lost in the dream that you forget to make today a masterpiece day.

I believe in you.
