Life the last few weeks have gone so fast but they've legit been full of moments I wouldn't trade for the world. From playing on stage with one of my favorite bands in my home town, to seeing almost 10 countries in the last 4 weeks. From playing with baby sky 30,000 feet in the air, to sharing laughter with those that mean the most to me. Breaking bread over conversations that one day can change the world, all the while being thousands of miles from home. Life is made up of a series of these moments that lead to the bigger picture but if we are always so focused on the bigger picture or the journey we may miss out on our favorite moments. Here are a few of my favorite moments from the last month or so ❤️
