

The dream was never to be an Arbonne consultant

But it was to be a mom 🤍

The dream was never to do network marketing.

My dream was always to be a mom. Even when I got my college degree and became a nurse I knew I wanted a family one day.

Infertility threw a wrench in that plan initially but God is good and most days I have to pinch myself looking at my life.

Arbonne provides the opportunity for me to contribute to our family's finances.

Prices now a days are rising and not stopping.

If making an extra income could impact your family, why not give this a try? It's not weird... it's a smart and safe way to help your family 🤱

Next week I'll be cohosting a lunch & learn.
If you're curious about Arbonne, comment and I'll reach out with a link!
