I honestly don't think anyone can stop me now — I have an undeniably CLEAR vision on exactly where I'm headed and the best part about it is that I get to help change many lives along the way.

For SO long I was in my OWN WAY ~ crazy right but A LOT of us are in the beginning.

You have an overwhelming feeling of WANTING to go for it, dive all in but you allow yourself to think of your objections.

"What if people say something about me"

"I don't know how to sell"

"I don't have enough followers"

"I don't have enough time"
