#Sponsored I think I look pretty hot in these photos. But that's not the point! The point is that I rarely FEEL hot anymore because since I've completed my complimentary 12-week trial of @equelleofficial - a hormone-free[‡], non-prescription supplement - I've had hardly any of the menopausal flashes that were making me feel hot!

So if you're one of the estimated 6,000 women a day in the U.S.* who's going through peri-menopause or menopause right now and you're suffering through disruptive hot flashes, maybe you should talk to your doctor and see if EQUELLE is right for you. Find out more about #EQUELLE at the link in my bio. Find out more about EQUELLE at the link in my bio. Because menopause is
