

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

ZOILA LEMA, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, v.

Plaintiff,

NUNA BABY ESSENTIALS, INC.

Defendant.

Case No.:

COMPLAINT – CLASS ACTION

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff Zoila Lema (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of all others similarly situated, by and through her undersigned counsel, brings this Class Action Complaint against Nuna Baby Essentials, Inc. (“Nuna” or “Defendant”). Plaintiff alleges the following upon information and belief based on and the investigation of counsel, except as to those allegations that specifically pertain to Plaintiff, which are alleged upon personal knowledge.

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff and the proposed Class Members bring this class action lawsuit on behalf of all persons who entrusted Defendant with sensitive Personally Identifiable Information (“PII”)¹ that was impacted in a data breach that Defendant publicly disclosed on February 21, 2025 (the “Data Breach” or the “Breach”).

2. Plaintiff’s claims arise from Defendant’s failure to properly secure and safeguard PII that was entrusted to it, and its accompanying responsibility to store and transfer that information.

3. Defendant Specializes in the design and manufacturing of high-quality baby gear products and their offering include car seats, strollers, playards, highchairs, and other essential items for infants and toddlers. Defendant is headquartered in Morgantown, Pennsylvania.²

4. Defendant had numerous statutory, regulatory, contractual, and common law duties and obligations, including those based on its affirmative representations to Plaintiff and Class Members, to keep their PII confidential, safe, secure, and protected from unauthorized disclosure or access.

5. On or around December 6, 2024, Defendant became aware of a security incident on its IT Network.³ Defendant launched an investigation to determine the nature and scope of the incident.⁴

6. Defendant's investigation concluded that an unauthorized third-party gained access to and copied certain information from its IT Network on or around September 8, 2024, and December 6, 2024.⁵

7. Defendant then conducted a comprehensive review of the impacted data to determine what information was compromised and how many individuals were impacted. On February 3, 2025, Defendant completed its review.⁶

8. Upon information and believe, the following types of sensitive information may have been compromised in the Data Breach: name, billing address, payment card number, expiration date and security code.⁷

9. On February 21, 2025, Defendant filed a notice with the Maine Attorney General's Office and started sending out notice letters to the affected individuals.⁸

10. Defendant failed to take precautions designed to keep its customers' PII secure.

11. Defendant owed Plaintiff and Class Members a duty to take all reasonable and necessary measures to keep the PII collected safe and secure from unauthorized access. Defendant solicited, collected, used, and derived a benefit from the PII, yet breached its duty by failing to implement or maintain adequate security practices.

12. Defendant admits that information in its system was accessed by unauthorized individuals, though it provided little information regarding how the Data Breach occurred.

13. The sensitive nature of the data exposed through the Data Breach signifies that Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered irreparable harm. Plaintiff and Class Members have lost the ability to control their PII and are subject to an increased risk of identity theft.

14. Defendant, despite having the financial wherewithal and personnel necessary to prevent the Data Breach, nevertheless failed to use reasonable security procedures and practice appropriate to the nature of the sensitive, unencrypted information it maintained for Plaintiff and Class Members, causing the exposure of Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII.

15. As a result of Defendant's inadequate digital security and notice process, Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII was exposed to criminals. Plaintiff and the Class Members have suffered and will continue to suffer injuries including: financial losses caused by misuse of their PII; the loss or diminished value of their PII as a result of the Data Breach; lost time associated with detecting and preventing identity theft; and theft of personal and financial information.

16. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of all persons whose PII was compromised as a result of Defendant's failure to: (i) adequately protect the PII of Plaintiff and Class Members; (ii) warn Plaintiff and Class Members of Defendant's inadequate information security practices; (iii) effectively secure hardware containing protected PII using reasonable and adequate security procedures free of vulnerabilities and incidents; and (iv) timely notify Plaintiff and Class Members of the Data Breach. Defendant's conduct amounts to at least negligence and violates federal and state statutes.

17. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of a Nationwide Class of similarly situated individuals against Defendant for: negligence; negligence per se; unjust enrichment, breach of implied contract, and breach of confidence.

18. Plaintiff seeks to remedy these harms and prevent any future data compromise on behalf of herself and all similarly situated persons whose personal data was compromised and stolen as a result of the Data Breach and who remain at risk due to Defendant's inadequate data security practices.

PARTIES

Plaintiff

19. Plaintiff Zoila Lema is a resident of Mendon, Massachusetts. Plaintiff is a customer of Defendant. On February 21, 2025, Defendant sent Plaintiff a notice letter informing her that her PII was compromised in the Data Breach.⁹ As a result of the Data Breach, Plaintiff has experienced an uptick in spam call, emails, and text messages, and has been forced to, and will continue to, invest significant time monitoring her accounts to detect and reduce the consequences of likely identity fraud. As a result of the Data Breach, Plaintiff is now subject to substantial and imminent risk of future harm. Plaintiff would not have used Defendant's services had she known that it would expose her sensitive PII.

Defendant

20. Defendant Nuna Baby Essentials, Inc. specializes in the design and manufacturing of baby gear products, and is headquartered in Morgantown, Pennsylvania, having its principal place of business located at 70 Thousand Oaks Blvd, Morgantown, Pennsylvania 19543.¹⁰

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

21. This Court has jurisdiction over this action under the Class Action Fairness Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2). The amount in controversy exceeds $5 million, exclusive of interest and costs. The number of class members is more than 100 and at least one member of the Class defined below is a citizen of a different state that is diverse from Defendant's citizenship.¹¹ Thus, minimal diversity exists under 28 U.S.C. § 1332 (d) (2) (A). Defendant has its principal place of business located in this District.

22. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because Defendant is registered to do business and maintains its principal place of business in this District.

23. Venue is proper in this Court because Defendant's principal place of business is located in this District, and because a substantial part of the events, acts, and omissions giving rise to Plaintiff's claims occurred in this District.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

A. Background on Defendant

24. Defendant designs and manufactures high-quality baby gear products including car seats, strollers, playards, highchairs, and other essential items for infants and toddlers.

25. Upon information and belief, Defendant made promises and representations to individuals', including Plaintiff and Class Members, that the PII collected from them would be kept safe and confidential, and that the privacy of that information would be maintained.¹²

26. Plaintiff and Class Members provided their PII to Defendant with the reasonable expectation and on the mutual understanding that Defendant would comply with its obligations to keep such information confidential and secure from unauthorized access.

¹² Privacy Policy, Nuna Baby Essentials, Inc: <https://nunababy.com/en/privacy-policy> (last visited March 11, 2025)

27. As a result of collecting and storing the PII of Plaintiff and Class Members for its own financial benefit, Defendant had a continuous duty to adopt and employ reasonable measures to protect Plaintiff's and the Class Members' PII from disclosure to third parties.

B. The Data Breach

28. On or around December 6, 2024, Defendant became aware of a security incident on its IT Network.¹³ Defendant launched an investigation to determine the nature and scope of the incident.¹⁴

29. Defendant's investigation concluded that an unauthorized third-party gained access to and copied certain information from its IT Network on or around September 8, 2024, and December 6, 2024.¹⁵

30. Defendant then conducted a comprehensive review of the impacted data to determine what information was compromised and how many individuals were impacted. On February 3, 2025, Defendant completed its review.¹⁶

31. Upon information and believe, the following types of sensitive information may have been compromised in the Data Breach: name, billing address, payment card number, expiration date and security code.¹⁷

32. On February 21, 2025, Defendant filed a notice with the Maine Attorney General's Office and started sending out notice letters to the affected individuals.¹⁸

33. Defendant failed to take precautions designed to keep individuals' PII secure.

34. While Defendant sought to minimize the damage caused by the Data Breach, it cannot and has not denied that there was unauthorized access to the sensitive PII of Plaintiff and Class Members.

35. Individuals affected by the Data Breach are, and remain, at risk that their data will be sold or listed on the dark web and, ultimately, illegally used in the future.

C. Defendant's Failure to Prevent, Identify, and Timely Report the Data Breach

36. Defendant admits that an unauthorized third party accessed IT Network. Defendant failed to take adequate measures to protect its computer systems against unauthorized access.

37. The PII that Defendant allowed to be exposed in the Data Breach is the type of PII that Defendant knew or should have known would be the target of cyberattacks.

38. Despite its own knowledge of the inherent risks of cyberattacks, and notwithstanding the FTC's data security principles and practices,¹⁹ Defendant failed to disclose that its systems and security practices were inadequate to reasonably safeguard its past and present customers PII.

39. The FTC directs businesses to use an intrusion detection system to expose a breach as soon as it occurs, monitor activity for attempted hacks, and have an immediate response plan if a breach occurs.²⁰ Immediate notification of a Data Breach is critical so that those impacted can take measures to protect themselves.

40. Here, Defendant waited for almost one month after being made aware of the Data Breach to notify impacted individuals.

D. The Harm Caused by the Data Breach Now and Going Forward

41. Victims of data breaches are susceptible to becoming victims of identity theft. The FTC defines identity theft as "a fraud committed or attempted using the identifying information of another person without authority.” 17 C.F.R. § 248.201(9). When “identity thieves have your personal information, they can drain your bank account, run up charges on your credit cards, open new utility accounts, or get medical treatment on your health insurance.”²¹

42. The type of data that may have been accessed and compromised here can be used to perpetrate fraud and identity theft.

43. Plaintiff and Class Members face a substantial risk of identity theft given that their PII was compromised in the Data Breach.

44. Stolen PII is often trafficked on the “dark web,” a heavily encrypted part of the Internet that is not accessible via traditional search engines. Law enforcement has difficulty policing the “dark web” due to this encryption, which allows users and criminals to conceal their identities and online activity.

45. When malicious actors infiltrate companies and copy and exfiltrate the PII that those companies store, the stolen information often ends up on the dark web where malicious actors buy and sell that information for profit.²²

46. For example, when the U.S. Department of Justice announced their seizure of AlphaBay—the largest online “dark market”—in 2017, AlphaBay had more than 350,000 listings, many of which concerned stolen or fraudulent documents that could be used to assume another person’s identity.”²³ Marketplaces similar to the now-defunct AlphaBay continue to be “awash with [PII] belonging to victims from countries all over the world.”²⁴

47. PII remains of high value to criminals, as evidenced by the prices they will pay through the dark web. Numerous sources cite dark web pricing for stolen identity credentials. For example, personal information can be sold at a price ranging from $40 to $200, and bank details have a price range of $50 to $200.²⁵ Criminals can also purchase access to entire company data breaches from $900 to $4,500.²⁶

48. According to the FBI's Internet Crime Complaint Center (IC3) 2019 Internet Crime Report, Internet-enabled crimes reached their highest number of complaints and dollar losses in 2019, resulting in more than $3.5 billion in losses to individuals and business victims.²⁷

49. Further, according to the same report, "rapid reporting can help law enforcement stop fraudulent transactions before a victim loses the money for good."²⁸ Defendant did not rapidly report to Plaintiff and Class Members that their PII had been stolen. Defendant notified impacted people after almost one month after learning of the Data Breach.

50. As a result of the Data Breach, the PII of Plaintiff and Class Members has been exposed to criminals for misuse. The injuries suffered by Plaintiff and Class Members, or likely to be suffered as a direct result of Defendant's Data Breach, include: (a) theft of their PII; (b) costs associated with the detection and prevention of identity theft; (c) costs associated with time spent and the loss of productivity from taking time to address and attempt to ameliorate, mitigate, and deal with the consequences of this Breach; (d) invasion of privacy; (e) the emotional distress, stress, nuisance, and annoyance of responding to, and resulting from, the Data Breach; (f) the actual and/or imminent injury arising from actual and/or potential fraud and identity theft resulting from their personal data being placed in the hands of the ill-intentioned hackers and/or criminals; (g) damage to and diminution in value of their personal data entrusted to Defendant with the mutual understanding that Defendant would safeguard their PII against theft and not allow access to and misuse of their personal data by any unauthorized third party; and (h) the continued risk to their PII, which remains in the possession of Defendant, and which is subject to further injurious breaches so long as Defendant fails to undertake appropriate and adequate measures to protect Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII.

51. In addition to a remedy for economic harm, Plaintiff and Class Members maintain an interest in ensuring that their PII is secure, remains secure, and is not subject to further misappropriation and theft.

52. Defendant disregarded the rights of Plaintiff and Class Members by (a) intentionally, willfully, recklessly, or negligently failing to take adequate and reasonable measures to ensure that its network servers were protected against unauthorized intrusions; (b) failing to disclose that it did not have adequately robust security protocols and training practices in place to safeguard Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII; (c) failing to take standard and reasonably available steps to prevent the Data Breach; (d) concealing the existence and extent of the Data Breach for an unreasonable duration of time; and (e) failing to provide Plaintiff and Class Members prompt and accurate notice of the Data Breach.

53. The actual and adverse effects to Plaintiff and Class Members, including the imminent, immediate, and continuing increased risk of harm for identity theft, identity fraud and/or medical fraud directly or proximately caused by Defendant's wrongful actions and/or inaction and the resulting Data Breach require Plaintiff and Class Members to take affirmative acts to recover their peace of mind and personal security including, without limitation, purchasing credit reporting services, purchasing credit monitoring and/or internet monitoring services, frequently obtaining, purchasing and reviewing credit reports, bank statements, and other similar information, instituting and/or removing credit freezes and/or closing or modifying financial accounts, for which there is a financial and temporal cost. Plaintiff and other Class Members have suffered, and will continue to suffer, such damages for the foreseeable future.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

54. Plaintiff brings this class action, individually and on behalf of the following Nationwide Class:

All persons in the United States who were impacted by the Data Breach publicly announced by Defendant in February 2025 (the “Class”).

55. Specifically excluded from the Class are Defendant, its officers, directors, agents, trustees, parents, children, corporations, trusts, representatives, principals, servants, partners, joint venturers, or entities controlled by Defendant, and its heirs, successors, assigns, or other persons or entities related to or affiliated with Defendant and/or its officers and/or directors, the judge assigned to this action, and any member of the judge’s immediate family.

56. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend the Class definitions above if further investigation and/or discovery reveals that the Class should be expanded, narrowed, divided into subclasses, or otherwise modified in any way.

57. This action may be certified as a class action because it satisfies the numerosity, commonality, typicality, adequacy, and superiority requirements therein.

58. Numerosity: The Class is so numerous that joinder of all Class Members is impracticable. Although the precise number of such persons is unknown, and the facts are presently within the sole knowledge of Defendant, upon information and belief, Plaintiff estimates that the Class is comprised of thousands of Class Members, if not more. The Class is sufficiently numerous to warrant certification.

59. Typicality of Claims: Plaintiff’s claims are typical of those of other Class Members because Plaintiff, like the unnamed Class, had her PII compromised as a result of the Data Breach. Plaintiff is a member of the Class, and her claims are typical of the claims of the members of the Class. The harm suffered by Plaintiff is similar to that suffered by all other Class Members which was caused by the same misconduct by Defendant.

60. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the Class. Plaintiff has no interests antagonistic to, nor in conflict with, the Class. Plaintiff has retained competent counsel who are experienced in consumer and commercial class action litigation and who will prosecute this action vigorously.

61. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Because the monetary damages suffered by individual Class Members are relatively small, the expense and burden of individual litigation make it impossible for individual Class Members to seek redress for the wrongful conduct asserted herein. If Class treatment of these claims is not available, Defendant will likely continue its wrongful conduct, will unjustly retain improperly obtained revenues, or will otherwise escape liability for its wrongdoing as asserted herein.

62. Predominant Common Questions: The claims of all Class Members present common questions of law or fact, which predominate over any questions affecting only individual Class Members, including:

- a. Whether Defendant failed to implement and maintain reasonable security procedures and practices appropriate to the nature and scope of the information compromised in the Data Breach;
- b. Whether Defendant's data security systems prior to and during the Data Breach complied with applicable data security laws and regulations;
- c. Whether Defendant's storage of Plaintiff's and Class Member's PII was done in a negligent manner;
- d. Whether Defendant had a duty to protect and safeguard Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII;
- e. Whether Defendant's conduct was negligent;
- f. Whether Defendant's conduct violated Plaintiff's and Class Members' privacy;
- g. Whether Defendant's conduct violated the statutes as set forth herein;
- h. Whether Defendant took sufficient steps to secure consumers PII;
- i. Whether Defendant was unjustly enriched; and
- j. The nature of relief, including damages and equitable relief, to which Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled.

63. Information concerning Defendant's policies is available from Defendant's records.

64. Plaintiff knows of no difficulty which will be encountered in the management of this litigation which would preclude its maintenance as a class action.

65. The prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the Class would run the risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications and establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendant. Prosecution as a class action will eliminate the possibility of repetitious and inefficient litigation.

66. Given that Defendant had not indicated any changes to its conduct or security measures, monetary damages are insufficient and there is no complete and adequate remedy at law.

CAUSES OF ACTION
COUNT I
NEGLIGENCE
(On Behalf of Plaintiff and the Class)

67. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth above in paragraphs 1 through 18 and paragraphs 24 through 66 as though fully set forth herein.

68. Plaintiff brings this claim individually and on behalf of the Class Members.

69. Defendant knowingly collected, came into possession of, and maintained Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII, and had a duty to exercise reasonable care in safeguarding, securing, and protecting such information from being compromised, lost, stolen, misused, and/or disclosed to unauthorized parties.

70. Defendant had a duty to have procedures in place to detect and prevent the loss or unauthorized dissemination of Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII.

71. Defendant had, and continues to have, a duty to timely disclose that Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII within its possession was compromised and precisely the types of information that were compromised.

72. Defendant owed a duty of care to Plaintiff and Class Members to provide data security consistent with industry standards, applicable standards of care from statutory authority like Section 5 of the FTC Act, and other requirements discussed herein, and to ensure that its systems and networks, and the personnel responsible for them, adequately protected individuals' PII.

73. Defendant's duty of care to use reasonable security measures arose as a result of the special relationship that existed between Defendant and its customers. Defendant was in a position to ensure that its systems were sufficient to protect against the foreseeable risk of harm to Plaintiff and Class Members from a data breach.

74. Defendant's duty to use reasonable care in protecting confidential data arose not only as a result of the statutes and regulations described above, but also because Defendant is bound by industry standards to protect confidential PII.

75. Defendant breached these duties by failing to exercise reasonable care in safeguarding and protecting Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII.

76. The specific negligent acts and omissions committed by Defendant include, but are not limited to, the following:

- a. Failing to adopt, implement, and maintain adequate security measures to safeguard Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII;
- b. Failing to adequately monitor the security of its networks and systems; and
- c. Failing to periodically ensure that its computer systems and networks had plans in place to maintain reasonable data security safeguards.

77. Defendant, through its actions and/or omissions, unlawfully breached its duties to Plaintiff and Class Members by failing to exercise reasonable care in protecting and safeguarding Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII within Defendant's possession.

78. Defendant, through its actions and/or omissions, unlawfully breached its duties to Plaintiff and Class Members by failing to have appropriate procedures in place to detect and prevent dissemination of Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII.

79. Defendant, through its actions and/or omissions, unlawfully breached its duty to timely disclose to Plaintiff and Class Members that the PII within Defendant's possession might have been compromised and precisely the type of information compromised.

80. Defendant breached the duties set forth in 15 U.S.C. § 45, the FTC guidelines, the National Institute of Standards and Technology's Framework for Improving Critical Infrastructure Cybersecurity, and other industry guidelines. In violation of 15 U.S.C. § 45, Defendant failed to implement proper data security procedures to adequately and reasonably protect Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII. In violation of the FTC guidelines, inter alia, Defendant did not protect the PII it keeps; failed to properly dispose of personal information that was no longer needed; failed to encrypt information stored on computer networks; lacked the requisite understanding of its networks' vulnerabilities; and failed to implement policies to correct security issues.

81. It was foreseeable that Defendant's failure to use reasonable measures to protect Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII would result in injury to Plaintiff and Class Members. Further, the breach of security was reasonably foreseeable given the known high frequency of cyberattacks and data breaches.

82. It was foreseeable that the failure to adequately safeguard Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII would result in injuries to Plaintiff and Class Members.

83. Defendant's breach of duties owed to Plaintiff and Class Members caused Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII to be compromised.

84. But for Defendant’s negligent conduct and breach of the above-described duties owed to Plaintiff and Class Members, their PII would not have been compromised.

85. As a result of Defendant’s failure to timely notify Plaintiff and Class Members that their PII had been compromised, Plaintiff and Class Members are unable to take the necessary precautions to mitigate damages by preventing future fraud.

86. As a result of Defendant’s negligence and breach of duties, Plaintiff and Class Members are in danger of imminent harm in that their PII, which is still in the possession of third parties, will be used for fraudulent purposes, and Plaintiff and Class Members have and will suffer damages including: a substantial increase in the likelihood of identity theft; the compromise, publication, and theft of their personal information; loss of time and costs associated with the prevention, detection, and recovery from unauthorized use of their personal information; the continued risk to their personal information; future costs in terms of time, effort, and money that will be required to prevent, detect, and repair the impact of the personal information compromised as a result of the Data Breach; and overpayment for the services or products that were received without adequate data security.

COUNT II
NEGLIGENCE PER SE
(On Behalf of Plaintiff and the Class)

87. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth above in paragraphs 1 through 18 and paragraphs 24 through 66 as though fully set forth herein.

88. Section 5 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. 45, prohibits “unfair . . . practices in or affecting commerce” including, as interpreted and enforced by the FTC, the unfair act or practice by Defendant of failing to use reasonable measures to protect Plaintiff’s and Class Members’ PII. Various FTC publications and orders also form the basis of Defendant’s duty.

89. Defendant violated Section 5 of the FTC Act (and similar state statutes) by failing to use reasonable measures to protect Plaintiff’s and Class Members’ PII and by failing to comply with industry standards.

90. Defendant's conduct was particularly unreasonable given the nature and amount of PII obtained and stored and the foreseeable consequences of a data breach on Defendant's systems.

91. Class Members are consumers within the class of persons Section 5 of the FTC Act (and similar state statutes) were intended to protect.

92. Moreover, the harm that has occurred is the type of harm the FTC Act (and similar state statutes) was intended to guard against. Indeed, the FTC has pursued over fifty enforcement actions against businesses which, as a result of their failure to employ reasonable data security measures and avoid unfair and deceptive practices, caused the same harm suffered by Plaintiff and Class Members.

93. As a result of Defendant's negligence per se, Plaintiff and Class Members have been harmed and have suffered damages including, but not limited to: damages arising from identity theft and fraud; out-of-pocket expenses associated with procuring identity protection and restoration services; increased risk of future identity theft and fraud, and the costs associated therewith; and time spent monitoring, addressing, and correcting the current and future consequences of the Data Breach.

COUNT III
UNJUST ENRICHMENT
(On Behalf of Plaintiff and the Class)

94. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth above in paragraphs 1 through 18 and paragraphs 24 through 66 as though fully set forth herein.

95. Plaintiff and Class Members conferred a benefit upon Defendant by providing Defendant with their PII.

96. Defendant appreciated or had knowledge of the benefits conferred upon itself by Plaintiff. Defendant also benefited from the receipt of Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII.

97. Under principles of equity and good conscience, Defendant should not be permitted to retain the full value of Plaintiff's and the Class Members' PII because Defendant failed to adequately protect their PII. Plaintiff and the proposed Class would not have provided their PII to Defendant had they known Defendant would not adequately protect their PII.

98. Defendant should be compelled to disgorge into a common fund for the benefit of Plaintiff and Class Members all unlawful or inequitable proceeds received by it because of its misconduct and the Data Breach it caused.

COUNT IV
BREACH OF IMPLIED CONTRACT
(On Behalf of Plaintiff and the Class)

99. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth above in paragraphs 1 through 18 and paragraphs 24 through 66 as though fully set forth herein.

100. Plaintiff and the Class provided and entrusted their PII to Defendant. Plaintiff and the Class provided their PII to Defendant as part of Defendant's regular business practices.

101. In so doing, Plaintiff and the Class entered into implied contracts with Defendant by which Defendant agreed to safeguard and protect such information, to keep such information secure and confidential, and to timely and accurately notify Plaintiff and the Class if their data had been breached and compromised or stolen, in return for the business services provided by Defendant. Implied in these exchanges was a promise by Defendant to ensure that the PII of Plaintiff and Class Members in its possession was secure.

102. Pursuant to these implied contracts, Plaintiff and Class Members provided Defendant with their PII. In exchange, Defendant agreed to, among other things, and Plaintiff and the Class understood that Defendant would: (1) provide services to Plaintiff and Class Members'; (2) take reasonable measures to protect the security and confidentiality of Plaintiff and Class Members' PII; and (3) protect Plaintiff and Class Members' PII in compliance with federal and state laws and regulations and industry standards.

103. Implied in these exchanges was a promise by Defendant to ensure the PII of Plaintiff and Class Members in its possession was only used to provide the agreed-upon reasons, and that Defendant would take adequate measures to protect Plaintiff and Class Members' PII.

104. A material term of this contract is a covenant by Defendant that it would take reasonable efforts to safeguard that information. Defendant breached this covenant by allowing Plaintiff and Class Members' PII to be accessed in the Data Breach.

105. Indeed, implicit in the agreement between Defendant and Plaintiff and Class Members was the obligation that both parties would maintain information confidentially and securely.

106. These exchanges constituted an agreement and meeting of the minds between the parties.

107. When the parties entered into an agreement, mutual assent occurred. Plaintiff and Class Members would not have disclosed their PII to Defendant but for the prospect of utilizing Defendant services. Conversely, Defendant presumably would not have taken Plaintiff and Class Members' PII if it did not intend to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with its services.

108. Defendant was therefore required to reasonably safeguard and protect the PII of Plaintiff and Class Members from unauthorized disclosure and use.

109. Plaintiff and Class Members would not have entrusted their PII to Defendant in the absence of their implied contracts with Defendant and would have instead retained the opportunity to control their PII.

110. Defendant breached the implied contracts with Plaintiff and Class Members by failing to reasonably safeguard and protect Plaintiff and Class Members' PII.

111. Defendant's failure to implement adequate measures to protect the PII of Plaintiff and Class Members violated the purpose of the agreement between the parties.

112. As a proximate and direct result of Defendant's breaches of its implied contracts with Plaintiff and Class Members, Plaintiff and the Class Members suffered damages as described in detail above.

COUNT V
BREACH OF CONFIDENCE
(On Behalf of Plaintiff and the Class)

113. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth above in paragraphs 1 through 18 and paragraphs 24 through 66 as though fully set forth herein.

114. At all times during Plaintiff's and Class Members' interactions with Defendant, Defendant was fully aware of the confidential and sensitive nature of Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII that Plaintiff and Class Members entrusted to Defendant.

115. As alleged herein and above, Defendant's relationship with Plaintiff and the Class was governed by terms and expectations that Plaintiff's and the Class Members' PII would be collected, stored, and protected in confidence, and would not be disclosed to unauthorized third parties.

116. Plaintiff and the Class entrusted Defendant with their PII with the explicit and implicit understandings that Defendant would protect and not permit the PII to be disseminated to any unauthorized third parties.

117. Plaintiff and the Class also entrusted Defendant with their PII with the explicit and implicit understandings that Defendant would take precautions to protect that PII from unauthorized disclosure.

118. Defendant voluntarily received Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII in confidence with the understanding that their PII would not be disclosed or disseminated to the public or any unauthorized third parties.

119. As a result of Defendant's failure to prevent and avoid the Data Breach from occurring, Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII was disclosed and misappropriated to unauthorized third parties beyond Plaintiff's and Class Members' confidence, and without their express permission.

120. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendant's actions and omissions, Plaintiff and the Class have suffered damages.

121. But for Defendant's disclosure of Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII in violation of the parties' understanding of confidence, their PII would not have been compromised, stolen, viewed, accessed, and used by unauthorized third parties. Defendant's Data Breach was the direct and legal cause of the theft of Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII as well as the resulting damages.

122. The injury and harm Plaintiff and the Class suffered was the reasonably foreseeable result of Defendant's unauthorized disclosure of Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII. Defendant knew or should have known its methods of accepting and securing Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII was inadequate as it relates to, at the very least, securing servers and other equipment containing Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII.

123. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's breach of its confidence with Plaintiff and the Class, Plaintiff and the Class have suffered and will suffer injury, including but not limited to: (i) identity theft; (ii) the loss of the opportunity how their PII is used; (iii) the compromise, publication, and/or theft of their PII; (iv) out-of-pocket expenses associated with the prevention, detection, and recovery from identity theft, tax fraud, and/or unauthorized use of their PII; (v) lost opportunity costs associated with effort expended and the loss of productivity addressing and attempting to mitigate the actual present and future consequences of the Data Breach, including but not limited to efforts spent researching how to prevent, detect, contest, and recover from tax fraud and identity theft; (vi) costs associated with placing freezes on credit reports; (vii) the continued risk to their PII, which remain in Defendant's possession and is subject to further unauthorized disclosures so long as Defendant fails to undertake appropriate and adequate measures to protect the PII of individuals; and (viii) present and future costs in terms of time, effort, and money that will be expended to prevent, detect, contest, and repair the impact of the PII compromised as a result of the Data Breach for the remainder of the lives of Plaintiff and Class Members.

124. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's breaches of confidence, Plaintiff and the Class Members have suffered and will continue to suffer other forms of injury and/or harm, including, but not limited to, anxiety, emotional distress, loss of privacy, and other economic and non-economic losses.
