litalmintz  Why starting an Arbonne business made sense to me

1. I was already using these products from different brands but wasn't getting paid to share or recommend them.

2. I wanted to make more money. My Income was capped at my 9-5 office job.

3. Wanted to own a business that would allow me to create a lifestyle and be able to work my own schedule.

There's so many other reasons like the fact that it costs $65 to start the

There's so many other reasons like the fact that it costs $65 to start the business which includes your own website and mentorship.

When I weighed the pros against the cons, it made so much sense to me.
