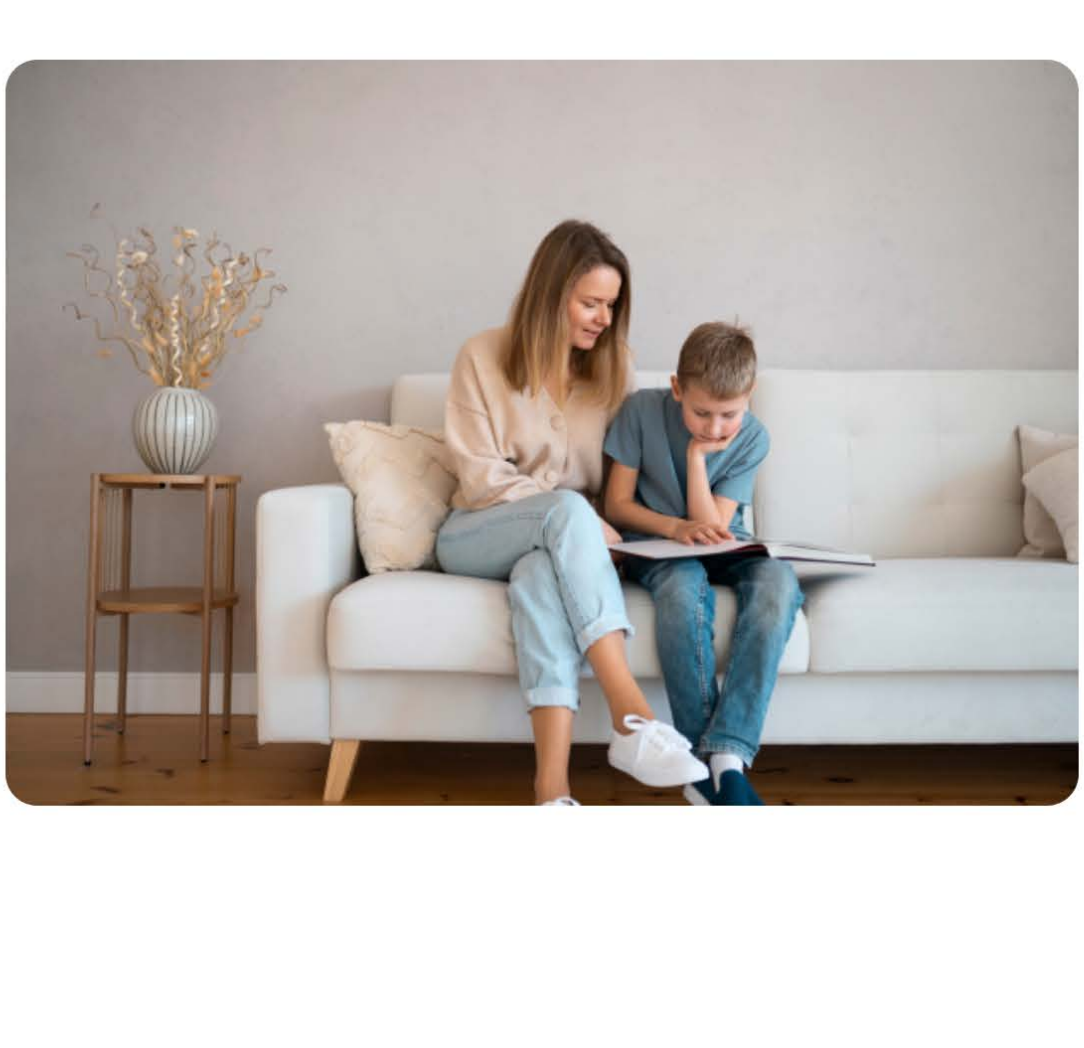
BOOK A CLEANER



Why is a move-out cleaning important?

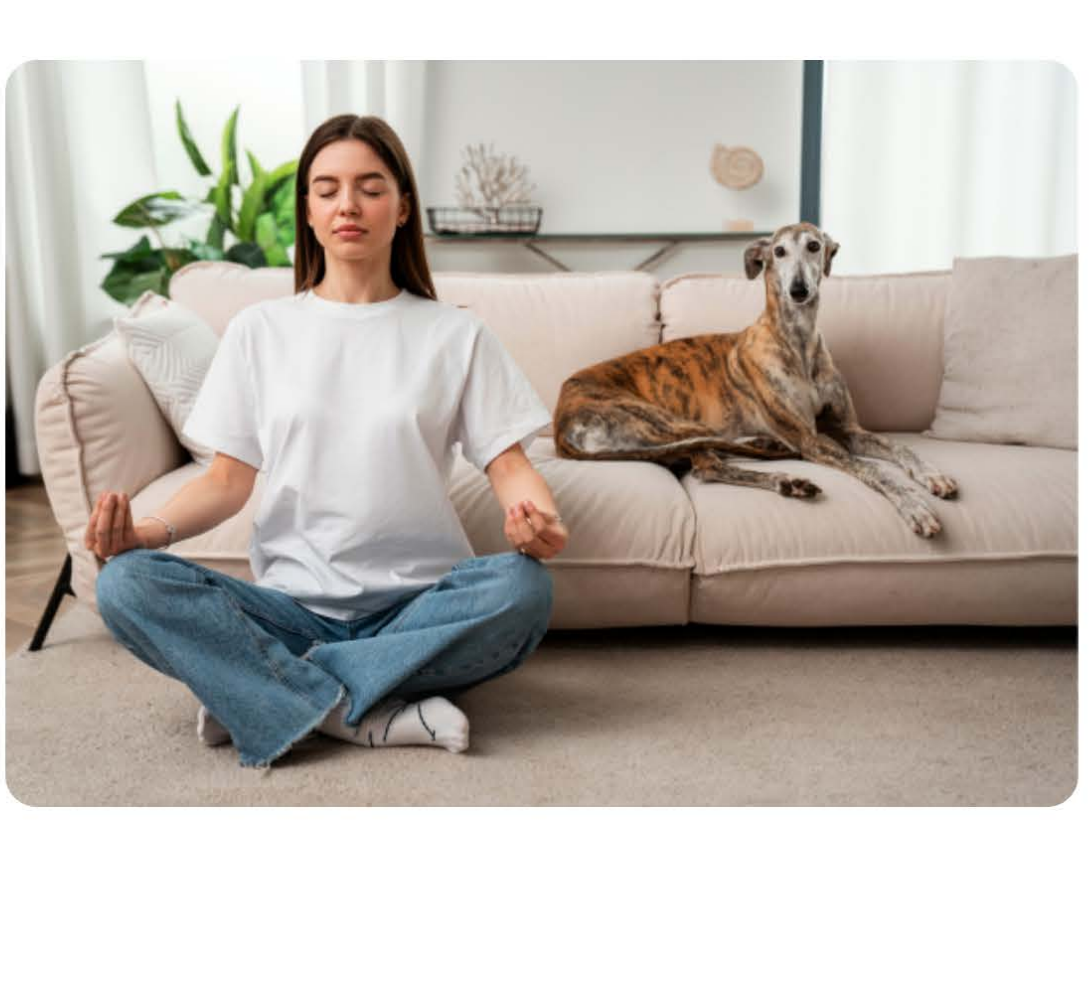
Booking a move-out/move-in cleaning service removes one of the most physically demanding tasks from your moving list, so you can start unpacking boxes and settling in sooner. With a professional move-out/move-in cleaning service, your new or old home will smell fresh and look great, free of old dust, grease, or grime.

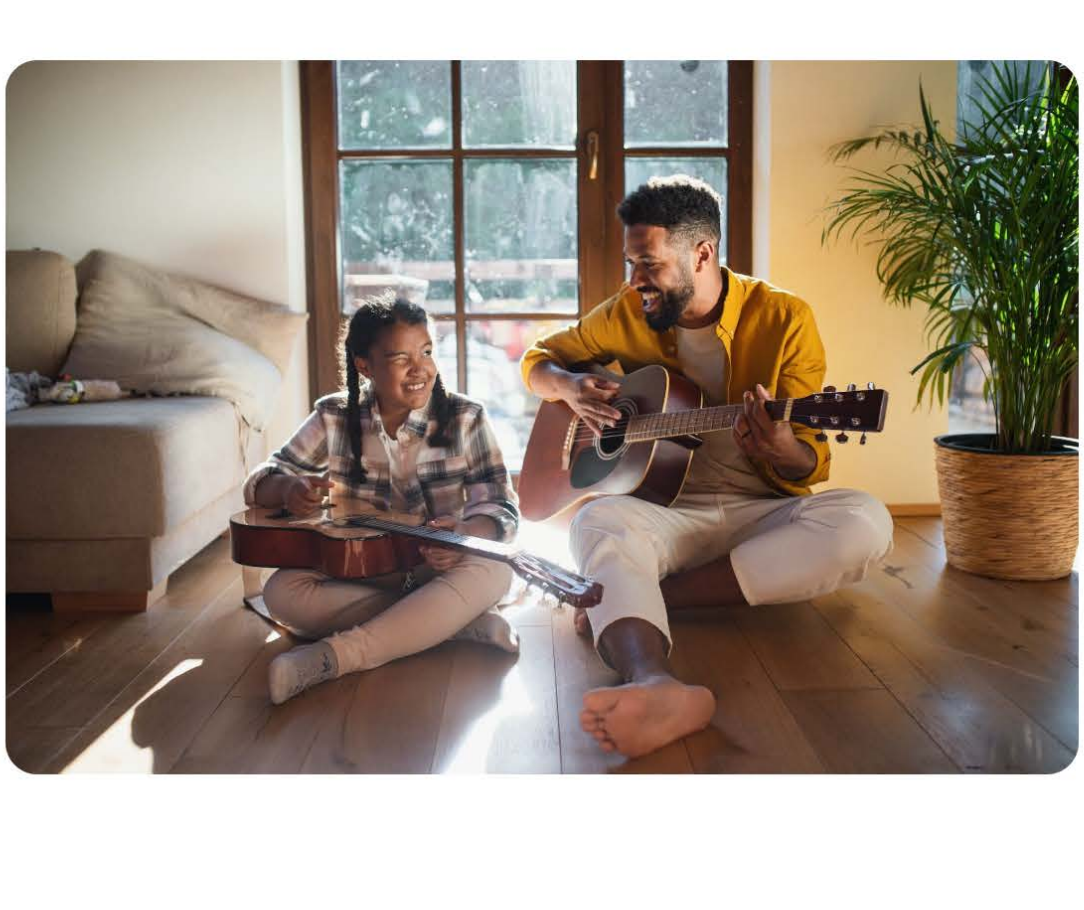
Move-out/move-in cleanings have become more and more popular in recent years as people realize that they don't have to clean themselves when they move. The benefits of a move-out/move-in cleaning service are many, the biggest of which is you can save your energy for other tasks.

Moving house is a lot of work and easily underestimated. There are logistics and planning beforehand. Then packing, transporting, and unpacking on the big day. All of which is tiring and potentially exhausting when combined with children, work, and tight deadlines.

Why it's worth cleaning before unpacking boxes

It can be tempting to think that you'll clean your new home after unpacking, but this is often not the best strategy. Cleaning prior to moving in ensures that you can easily reach and wipe down your walls, within your cabinets, and behind appliances. It also ensures that you get your move-in cleaning done, instead of hoping you'll get to it in the future.





Move-in cleaning service for tenants and home buyers

When you're moving into a new home, you want it to be clean and hygienic from your first day. Generally, most homes are cleaned prior to being vacated, but the quality of that cleaning can vary wildly. It can also be hard to tell how dirty a home is prior to it being vacated and while still furnished.

When you move into your new home, you're likely to find old grease and grime in the kitchen, watermarks in the bathroom, and dust and debris through the living spaces and bedrooms of your new home. Not to mention strong or musty odors. Cleaning all this yourself can take hours and be difficult to fit in between packing up your last home and moving boxes into your new home.

Homeaglow makes your move-in cleaning simple by connecting you with hundreds of 5-star cleaners experienced with move-in cleaning. They bring their own supplies and equipment so you won't have to unpack any boxes to find yours. Cleaners on Homeaglow also charge less the most cleaning services, giving you a great deal and a great move-in cleaning at the same time.

Move-out cleaning service for landlords

If a tenant has left your property without satisfactorily cleaning it, you can book a move-out cleaning service through Homeaglow at short notice, on either the same or the following day. This helps ensure you can move new tenants into your property on time and without causing delays. Choose from a range of move-out cleaners near you that are ready to help at short notice.

Move-in cleaning service FAQ

Should I deep clean before moving out? –

Whether you're vacating a rental property or selling your home, it's worthwhile cleaning the property extensively before you leave. This will help ensure you get your security deposit back on a rental or that a property you own will look its best for sale.

Should I deep clean before moving in? –

Deep cleaning before moving in ensures that you can clean all the hard-to-reach places in your home that you won't be able to reach once your furniture is moved in and boxes unpacked, like within cabinets and behind ovens.

Should I paint or deep clean first? –

Whether to paint or deep clean first depends on the state of the home you're vacating or moving into. If your walls are greasy and need extensive cleaning, then book a cleaning prior to painting. You may also need a second clean to tidy up after the painting is done.

What's included in a move-out/move-in cleaning? −

Most people choose to have their entire home cleaned in a move-out/move-in cleaning, but it's up to you. You can choose just to have your dirtiest rooms cleaned, like the bathroom and kitchen, or you can have bedrooms, living room, and hallways cleaned too. It's also possible to book extras like cleaning inside cabinets and your oven.

Which cleaner will do my move-out/move-in cleaning? −

When you book with Homeaglow, you choose which professional cleaner does your move-in cleaning. All cleaners are background-checked and certified. You can read the rating and reviews of each cleaner for peace of mind before you book.

Are cleaning supplies included in a move-out/move-in cleaning? −

Cleaners booked through Homeaglow bring their own cleaning supplies and equipment. If you'd prefer that your move-out/move-in cleaner uses your products or equipment, simply let them know when you book.
