The introverted shy girl still makes it 🙏

Let me start off by saying nothing has been handed or has come easy, but man has it been worth it.

A few years back I was the single mom barely getting by & completely lost in my life. I was so unhappy with my job but what I hated most was getting home late to watching my son sleep. I had no time, no freedom, no money, I felt like I was in a hamster wheel that I just had to accept.

Fast forward your girl had her "enough is enough moment" & I decided to get out of my comfort zone and learn something

Fast forward your girl had her "enough is enough moment" & I decided to get out of my comfort zone and learn something new. I wasn't sure what would come out of it but what I did know for sure was that I my current life was not the way I wanted to continue to live.

It's now been 5 years since I last worked a 9-5 in these last 5 years I learned how to monetize online. I tried different businesses & side hustles but it wasn't until a year and half ago that I decided to learn digital marketing focusing on digital products & I was able to built a multi 7 figure business from it.

Imagine if I would have stayed in my comfort zone? Imagine if I would have stayed at the job I hated?

Life is wild, one day you really are questioning everything & wondering if it gets better... I'm here to tell you it does. It gets so much better!

My life has changed drastically but I'm not the only one. I've been able to show over 100,000+ students how to learn the same skills, & start their own digital marketing business from scratch.
